Come to the Academic Advisement & Transfer Center (AATC) for accurate, comprehensive and timely academic advisement and audits, CUNY course equivalency information, and pertinent information on transferring to a four-year college. The AATC also maintains the BMCC Transfer Times Newsletter that highlights various transfer opportunities; an extensive transfer library comprised of print catalogs, videos and the online search, CollegeSource, that lists colleges across the country, and information about traditional and nontraditional careers. In addition, the AATC sponsors annual transfer fairs with CUNY, SUNY and private colleges.

ASAP is a special program designed to help motivated community college students earn their degrees as quickly as possible, with a goal of graduating at least 50% of students within three-years. Due to a variety of stresses and responsibilities, too many community college students are not able to complete their Associate degrees in a timely manner, if at all. ASAP helps to eliminate these stresses by providing select community college students with the academic, social, and financial support they need to graduate with an Associate in Arts or Associate in Applied Science degree in no more than three years. Key ASAP program features include a consolidated block schedule, comprehensive advisement and career development services, and requires full-time study. Financial incentives include tuition waivers for financial aid eligible students, textbook assistance and the ability to earn unlimited monthly Metrocards during the academic year.

who become Service Corps members will make a meaningful difference through service while gaining valuable real work-experience, earning a wage (up to $12/ hour), and where appropriate, receive college credit.

Service Corps projects are focused on meeting the City’s most pressing needs in four major themes: a healthier city, a greener & more resilient city, a better educated city, and an economically stronger city. In addition, Service Corps projects help support participating students’ success in college and preparation for the workplace by offering students valuable work experience and exposure to real-world careers. College Discovery (CD) is an Opportunity Program offered in community colleges in the City University of NY. CD was established in 1964 with the primary goal of demonstrating that, given proper support services, students who were being excluded from the University because of existing admissions criteria could attain a college degree. Students are considered for the program as entering freshmen on the basis of their high school average and family/household income. CD provides individual professional counseling, tutoring, and a stipend of up to $350 per semester. The CD program also pays for the cost of the Student Activities Fees in the amount of $59.85. Upon transferring to four-year colleges, students will be eligible for Opportunity Programs in CUNY (SEEK), SUNY (HEOP), and Private Colleges (EOP or EOF).

In addition, the program provides ongoing support to help COPE students identify and define personal and career goals, to develop effective life management skills, and better utilize services and appropriate systems to promote their long-term autonomy.

The CUNY Graduation Success Initiative (GSI) is a program designed to help motivated community college students accomplish their educational and personal goals. To accomplish this, GSI provides a comprehensive set of academic and support services that foster positive student outcomes including academic achievement, timely graduation, and workforce preparedness. It is a pioneering effort to show that by addressing key academic, social, and financial barriers, students can focus on what matters most while they are in college – their education.

There are many costs associated with attending BMCC. Tuition, fees, books, supplies, and travel to and from school are just some of these school-related expenses. Financial aid is money that comes from the federal, state and city governments to help you meet these costs.

Part of the mission of the Financial Aid Office is to ensure that every eligible BMCC student has access to the financial resources they need to attain a college education. Some of the services we provide are to:

• assist you and your family in planning for and meeting the expenses associated with attending BMCC
• furnish information about a range of federal, state, city and institutional sources of financial assistance
• provide the counseling and other services that you and your family need to establish and maintain eligibility for federal, state, city and institutional award programs

In order for the Financial Aid Office to assist you, you must take the first step! Your eligibility for financial aid can only be determined from processed financial aid applications. If you want financial aid, you should submit an application even if you think you might not be eligible.

To learn more about what kinds of financial assistance are available and how to apply, check out the financial aid information in the “How Do I” section of this handbook.

Visit the financial aid website at www.bmcc.cuny.edu/finaid/ for eligibility requirements, application filing procedures, office contact information and a schedule of available application labs and workshops.

It depends heavily on energetic and interested representatives elected annually from the student body. SGA affects all levels of student participation at the college. There are 19 elected members, including four officers.

In addition to serving as the voice of the student body, SGA is responsible for assisting with recommending the allocation of student activity fees, shaping policies affecting student life, coordinating extracurricular activities, and chartering new clubs and organizations. It also selects students to legislative bodies of the college: the Academic Senate and the College Council. These bodies are generally involved in the development of policies that affect the general operation of the College and its constituency.

To find out more about SGA committees and how you can become involved, visit the SGA Office, Room S242. To find out about SGA elections and whether you are eligible to run, visit the Student Activities Office and pick up an official Elections Guidelines.

The BMCC Peer Mentoring Program connects successful continuing students with new students and those in academic difficulty. Mentors and mentees will develop personal, leadership and academic skills, become familiar with the various resources available to students on campus and develop healthy and comfortable mentoring relationships.

Students at BMCC have the opportunity to express their creativity, concerns, perspectives, and interests through a newspaper and a magazine. Staffed entirely by students, both publications are continually seeking writers, editors, and photographers.

The student yearbook is published annually and highlights campus life, commencement, and the graduating classes of the previous academic year. The yearbook is always on the lookout for photographers, editors, and production coordinators. To join the yearbook staff, contact the Office of Student Activities.

How do I apply for financial aid?

Apply for most types of federal and state financial aid by completing a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) at: www.fafsa.gov. If you file your FAFSA-on-the-Web, you will be able to link directly to TAP-on-the-Web so that you may apply for New York State tuition assistance grants. Online filing allows you to receive your application results in as little as 72 hours.

What if I need access to a computer?

If you need access to a computer, use the campus cyber-cafés, open access web labs, or the Financial Aid Support Team (F.A.S.T.) Web Services Center, Room S143.

When should I apply for financial aid?

Allow at least 4-6 weeks to get your applications processed. If you haven't filed your applications early enough, you will have no pending financial aid to put against your tuition charges and may have to settle the charges from your own resources until processing of your financial aid applications is completed.

Do I have to reapply for financial aid every year?

Yes. Financial aid is awarded for a single academic year and is based on your family's economic situation during the previous year. Continuing students must reapply as early as possible in the spring semester for the following academic year.

Financial Aid Application Deadlines

Try to meet the deadlines posted below. You may still apply for financial aid if you miss these deadlines, but funds from some sources may not be available to late filers. Some award programs with limited funding are awarded on a first-come, first-served basis.

Assemble your/your spouse's and/or your parents' income records. If you are not required to file federal tax returns, file your FAFSA now!

March 15
File your/your spouse's and/or your parents' federal income tax returns.

Filing your financial aid applications after April 30th for fall admission means that you risk having to pay a fall tuition bill before finding out about your financial aid eligibility.

For Spring Admission
October 31
• File your FAFSA-on-the-Web at www.fafsa.gov
• If eligible use the IRS Data Retrieval option for you, your spouse (if married) and your parents (if dependent) to transfer your income information directly from IRS records to your FAFSA.

• Federal Award Programs—with few exceptions, issues with your FAFSA must be resolved and resolvable with the Financial Aid Office by your last day of attendance in any award period (usually the semester).
• Federal Direct Loan Requests—must be received by the Financial Aid Office no later than three weeks before the end of the fall or spring terms.
• New York State TAP—Issues with your NYS TAP application must be resolved by June 30 of the award year.
• Aid for Part-Time Study (APTS)—An application must be on file before the end of the third week of your first semester of attendance within the award year.

If the Bursar’s Office does not have enough information about your pending financial aid, you may have to settle the bill from your own resources until processing of your financial aid applications is completed.

Often, the Financial Aid Office must request additional information or documents to complete the processing of your application. Please respond promptly to any requests for additional information. Most delays in

You are also expected to make satisfactory progress toward your degree in order to keep receiving your awards. The following is a summary of the enrollment and academic performance requirements for the federal and state financial aid programs.

Enrollment Requirements (Getting Your Aid)

Basic Enrollment Conditions

Federal Pell Grant: Maintain enrollment from 1 to 18 credits/equated credits per semester. (Dollar amounts are pro-rated to your enrollment status at the end of the add/drop period.)

Federal Loans, Work-Study & Supplemental Grant: Establish & maintain enrollment in at least 6 credits or equated credits each semester.

New York State Tuition Assistance Program (TAP): Enroll full-time in a minimum of 12 credits or equated credits per semester.

Part-Time TAP (PTAP): Enroll part-time in a minimum of 6 to 11 credits or equated credits per semester (must earn 24 degree credits in the year preceding the 1st award.)

NYS Aid for Part-Time Study (APTS): Enroll part-time in at least 6 to 11 credits or equated credits per semester (available to part-time students not receiving PTAP.)

Additional Enrollment Conditions

All Federal Aid Programs: 30 hour limit on payment for remedial [non-ESL] classes.

All Federal Aid Programs: Courses taken should count for the degree.

TAP: Must include in full-time course load at least 3 degree credits in the 1st TAP semester and 6 degree credits every TAP semester thereafter.
PTAP or APTS: Must include at least 6 degree credits each PTAP or APTS semester.

All NYS Aid Programs: Courses counted toward the minimum full-time/part-time enrollment requirement MUST count for the degree.

Repeating Failed Courses
All Federal Aid Programs: Payments are available for repeating failed courses (subject to maintaining satisfactory progress.)
All NYS Aid Programs: Payments are available for repeating failed courses (subject to maintaining satisfactory progress.)

Repeating Courses Previously Passed
All Federal Aid Programs: Payments are available for a one-time repeat of any course previously passed.
All NYS Aid Programs: Payments are NOT AVAILABLE for repeating any class for which an acceptable passing grade was received.

Satisfactory Progress Requirements (Keeping Your Aid)
When Academic Progress Is Measured
All Federal Aid Programs: Measured once a year after spring term.
All NYS Aid Programs: Measured after each term.

Progress Conditions
All Federal Aid Programs: Must meet the college’s minimum retention standard or be granted academic probation.

All Federal Aid Programs: May attempt no more than 150% of courses needed for your current degree (that is, may attempt no more than 90 credits to earn 60.)

All Federal Aid Programs: You must successfully complete a certain percentage of the total number of credits that you attempt according to the following table:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Credits Attempted</th>
<th>15</th>
<th>30</th>
<th>45</th>
<th>60</th>
<th>75</th>
<th>90</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Credits Earned</td>
<td>0</td>
<td>6</td>
<td>20</td>
<td>33</td>
<td>45</td>
<td>61</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

All NYS Aid Programs: Must complete a certain % of course work each semester a NYS payment is received.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Semester</th>
<th>1</th>
<th>2</th>
<th>3</th>
<th>4</th>
<th>5</th>

<td>50%</td>
<td>50%</td>
<td>75%</td>
<td>75%</td>
<td>100%</td>
<td>100%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

All NYS Aid Programs: Must earn credits toward the degree and attain a minimum GPA each semester the equivalent of a full-time NYS payment is received.

Note: Students enrolled in a remedial program of study will be evaluated using the first chart without regard to the academic year TAP was first received.
Is financial aid available for the winter and summer sessions?

The Spring Term will consist of two sessions: a winter session and a spring session. Enrollment in either or both the winter session and the spring session may be considered eligible enrollment for payment of Federal Pell Grant. New York State tuition assistance is not available for the winter session.

TAP and Pell may be available to help pay for summer classes if you meet certain requirements:

- You may be eligible for a summer PELL grant if you have not used all of your scheduled PELL grant eligibility in the prior fall or spring terms.
- You may be eligible for a summer TAP award if you earned 24 degree credits in the prior fall and spring terms and have reapplied for TAP for the new academic year.

Note that information about summer awards may not always be available at the time you register for summer classes. Although the Bursar attempts to defer summer tuition based on the best available financial aid information, it may not always be possible to do so. You may have to pay your tuition from other resources and receive a financial aid refund from the College at a later time.

For more information about your eligibility for winter and summer financial aid, read our information guide posted on our website and, also available at the Financial Aid Office.

How does withdrawing from classes affect my financial aid?

Financial aid is awarded with the expectation that you will attend your classes for the entire period for which the aid was awarded. Withdrawing from class can have both short-term and long-range effects on your financial aid eligibility. An immediate short-term effect can be the elimination or reduction of your eligibility for a payment or payments in your current semester. Since withdrawals will not generally eliminate your tuition charges for the term, you may discover that your withdrawal causes you an unexpected financial hardship. There may also be long-range effects on your financial aid eligibility due to withdrawing from class. For example, you may not be able to meet one of the satisfactory academic credit requirements.
performance requirements next semester or several semesters from now because of class withdrawals that happened in the current semester.

Before you withdraw from a class or classes, we suggest that you speak with your instructors and an academic advisor. Decisions related to your academic program should not be based solely on financial considerations, and an advisor can perhaps lead you to a solution that doesn’t require you to withdraw.

Tips on How to Succeed in College

Curriculum Planning

Curriculum planning, rather than semester planning, allows you to see the bigger picture and map out your academic career at BMCC. Curriculum planning will force you to ask yourself what you want to accomplish at BMCC and how long it will take to reach those goals. You should meet with an academic or faculty advisor and plan your academic career as soon as possible.

Making Academic Changes

Before making an academic change, make sure you have researched the consequences of your decision. Speak with a professor, an advisor, a counselor, anyone you feel comfortable speaking with, but make sure you get the facts first. But what are some academic changes?

- Withdrawing from courses
- Dropping courses
- Change of major
- Change of semester program
- Taking courses out of your curriculum
- Transferring to another college

Access DegreeWorks, an online advisement system which provides you with details about the courses and requirements you have taken and those which are still required for graduation. All students will need to create (if they have not done so already) a Username and Password through the CUNY Portal in order to access BMCC DegreeWorks. Login information can be found at www.cuny.edu.
DegreeWorks

DegreeWorks Features

Step by step Instructions for DegreeWorks:

Step 1: Go to www.cuny.edu

Step 2: Click on the Log-In link on the right side of the page.

Step 3: Enter your Username & Password and click the Login button.

Step 4: Click on the Student Advisement/ DegreeAudit link.

Step 5: Students will be taken to their own customized audit.

Advisors and Staff will need to enter the student’s EMPLID or CF ID Number and hit ENTER on your keyboard to pull the students degree audit.

Note: If you need help with CUNY Portal go to www.cuny.edu and click on the Portal Help link on the left side of the page.

DegreeWorks Features

Worksheet Tab
This tab displays the student’s degree progress based on the student’s major on file. This also displays the student’s remedial placement information, impoundment, if any, and academic notes.

What If Tab
What-If audits allow you to check into other majors using your current class history. You can use this tab if you are thinking of changing your major and would like to know where you stand in the new curriculum.

Planner Tab
The Planner contains a grid organized by academic term. Advisors can plan student’s future course offering for as many as eight semesters. Students can only view a planned schedule.

Notes Tab
Often advisors would like to make a permanent note of what was discussed and what needs to be done next. They may also want to see what has been discussed with the student by a previous advisor. The Notes feature of Degree Audit can be used for this.

GPA Calculator Tab
There are three different GPA calculators: Graduation, Term, and Advice. The calculators, in conjunction with current DegreeWorks functions, can help students in realistic goal-setting at the beginning of the term, precise calculation of their end-of-term GPA using students’ actual academic information, and accurate mapping of students’ paths for achieving honors, avoiding probation, or satisfying personal academic aspirations.
Look Ahead Tab
Students can use this tab to see exactly how a future course can be applied to their graduation requirement. This is similar to running a Planner Audit. Students mostly use this tab since they do not have access to process an audit from Planner.

How do I compute my Grade Point Average (GPA)?
After you complete a course, you receive a letter grade. Most letter grades have a numerical point value (see Grading System Chart below).

How to Calculate Your GPA
To calculate your semester GPA (grade point average), follow these easy five steps, also called DMAAD.

1. Determine the point value for each grade earned (remedial courses don’t calculate into GPA).
2. Multiply the point value by the number of credits. This will give you your earned points.
3. Add the total number of credits attempted.
4. Add the total quality points.
5. Divide the total quality points by the total number of credits attempted to get your GPA.

Academic Success Guide

The information contained in this section highlights several important aspects of academic life at BMCC. These aspects are presented to help you focus on achieving academic success.

The CUNY Skills Assessment Tests

All students who are accepted to BMCC must first take the CUNY Skills Assessment Tests in reading, English writing, and mathematics. Your performance on these placement exams will determine if you need developmental skills or remedial assistance.

Placement Exam Exemptions: There are several ways in which you may be given an exemption from taking the CUNY Skills Assessment Tests. Please find below the list of qualifications that must be met in order to receive exemption.

Exemption Criteria: You may be exempt from the CUNY Reading and Writing Tests if you have:

- SAT 1 Verbal score of 480 or greater.
- SAT Reasoning Test - Critical Reading score of 480 or greater (Prior to March 2005, the Critical Reading section was known as the SAT 1 Verbal section.)
- ACT English score of 20 or greater.
- New York State Regents score in English of 80 or greater.
- Bachelor’s degree from an accredited domestic institution.
- 45 or more credits from an accredited domestic institution outside of CUNY.
You may be exempt from the CUNY Mathematics Test based on the following evidence:

- SAT 1 Math score of 500 or greater.
- SAT Reasoning Test - Math score of 500 or greater.
- ACT Math score of 20 or greater.
- New York State Regents score in Math A or B, or Sequential II or III of 80 or greater and completed high school Algebra 2/Trigonometry or a higher level course.
- Successful completion of a credit-bearing math course at a CUNY college or other regionally or New York State accredited institution (if the learning outcomes are deemed appropriate). Successful completion is a passing grade within CUNY and “C” grade or better for non-CUNY courses.
- Successful completion of elementary algebra at a CUNY college or other regionally or New York State accredited institution (if the learning outcomes are deemed appropriate). Successful completion is a passing grade within CUNY and “C” grade or better for non-CUNY courses.
- CUNY Associate’s degree holders.
- Bachelor’s degree from an accredited domestic institution.
- 45 or more credits from an accredited domestic institution outside of CUNY.

If you are eligible for a waiver, you must submit all documentation (e.g., official transcripts, SAT scores, etc.) in support of waivers to the Admissions Office before registration. If you have taken the CUNY Skills Assessment Tests at another CUNY college or through a high school program, please inform the Testing Office of the results before registration. All official exemption documentation must be mailed or hand-delivered in a sealed envelope to the Admissions Office, room S310.

After you have taken the CUNY Assessment Tests or submitted documentation in support of a waiver, you will receive an invitation for orientation from the college.

Other Placement Exams

Math Placement Exam (MAT 56 & MAT 206): If you are proficient in Math and are exempt from the remedial math you were tested on during the Placement exams, you may go to the Math Lab, room S535, to take the Intermediate Algebra or Pre-Calculus exams, which are prerequisites for upper level math courses, some science, and other selected courses. MAT 56 and at least one upper-level math course (200 or above) are required for Engineering Science, Childhood Education, Bilingual Childhood Education, Science, Mathematics, Computer Science, and Business Administration majors.

Modern Foreign Language Exam (Spanish, French, Italian, Chinese): If you speak any of the languages listed above and want to take a course in that same language, you will need to take a Language Placement exam PRIOR to registration. You can take the exam in the Modern Language Department in room S601 or at the Modern Language table during regular registration.
Immersion Program

If you are a newly admitted student who needs to take a developmental course(s) because of your placement scores, this program will provide you with an opportunity to acquire basic skills, complete your basic skills obligations, and get a head start on your college experience. The program:

- Offers basic skills courses to improve your proficiency in areas such as English (writing), English as a Second Language, Academic & Critical Reading, and Mathematics;
- Provides an opportunity to enroll in one course to reduce or eliminate the number of basic skills courses you will be required to take in the fall or spring semester;
- Provides counseling, tutoring and other support services;
- Offers an opportunity to work with concerned and committed faculty in small class-size settings.

Transfer Students

As a transfer student, it is important that you become familiar with BMCC’s current transfer credit policy since transfer credit requirements vary from one institution to another. For details, visit: www.bmcc.cuny.edu/admissions/apply/transfer.html. Be certain to speak with an Admissions counselor to find out what – if any – transfer credits BMCC will accept prior to registration. This will reduce the chance of your repeating courses at BMCC that you have taken from your prior college. It is also important that you speak with the Testing Office to find out if you are required to sit for the CUNY placement exams.

International Students

As an international student, you will have to acquaint yourself with the policies and procedures of not only BMCC, but also United States Department of Homeland Security (DHS) federal immigration regulations. If you have a bachelor’s degree or higher from a non-U.S. college that is acknowledged by CUNY’s University Application Processing Center and/or Office of Admissions Services, you may still be required to test in English. Colleges may test ESL students who have completed a baccalaureate to assess their proficiency in English. If the assessment indicates a need for ESL Instruction, the college may require the student to take it and set standards for proficiency in English.

There are many support services available to you in your academic journey, especially the International Student Office, located in room S511N. It is critical that you familiarize yourself with this office and its guidelines. But if you still have questions, reach out to the faculty or staff who will be happy to help you in any way they can.

Classroom Etiquette

Now that you are a college student enrolled at BMCC, you are expected to present yourself and act the way a responsible college student is to behave in and outside of the classroom. Proper college decorum helps the BMCC college community maintain a safe and scholarly environment conducive to academic success and college life. In addition, classroom protocol requires that students respect themselves, fellow students, professors, and staff by following simple rules, such as:

- You should come to class on time.
- When problems occur between members of the BMCC community, seek the proper venue for resolving conflict.
- If you have been unavoidably detained and are arriving late for class, try to enter the classroom as quietly as possible in order not to disturb the class in session.
- While in class, you must silence cell phones and other devices.
- Keep noise levels down throughout the building.

General Education

No matter what your major is, BMCC believes in providing all its students with a foundation of specific knowledge and competencies necessary for life-long learning by fostering personal development, intellectual curiosity, and critical thinking that will enhance informed and effective participation in society. You will be provided with ample opportunities to develop and reinforce specific knowledge and competencies upon completion of the general education requirements in your program as well as in your major courses.

The information provided below outlines the General Education Goals at BMCC and gives examples of how you may fulfill them regardless of your selected major.

Communication Skills: You will write, read, listen and speak effectively. Communication skills are as vital in the pursuit of higher education as they are in succeeding in the labor force. As a student, having effective communication skills will be crucial in report writing and in successfully articulating points in presentations. In the workforce, employers expect you to be able to get your message across in oral and written form. If you are planning to pursue a baccalaureate degree, you will be required to read written texts, listen to lectures, write reports, and make presentations. You will acquire these skills by taking courses such as English and Speech, enrolling in writing intensive courses, and through a variety of workshops offered by the college. These skills will be reinforced in other courses through content and assignments.

Quantitative Skills: Students will use quantitative skills and the concepts and methods of mathematics to solve problems across disciplines. Quantitative reasoning will teach you how to think logically and solve difficult problems—in the classroom as well as in life outside of school. If you want to continue your education, these skills can help prepare you for upper-level courses where you need to use logical thinking and problem solving skills. In addition, almost every career at one time or another will require quantitative skills to prepare a budget, purchase equipment, and/or interpret quantitative data. You will be able to acquire these skills by enrolling in courses such as mathematics, science, etc. These skills will also be reinforced through other major courses and college activities.

Values: Students will make informed choices based on an understanding of personal values, human diversity, multicultural awareness and social responsibility.

Your values and the choices you make define who you are in many ways. As a student, you will learn to appreciate diversity, work collaboratively, and reflect on ethical issues. You will be able to acquire these skills through courses and learning experiences offered by every academic department at BMCC. These skills will also be reinforced through extra-curricular activities and other college experiences.

Social & Behavioral Sciences: Students will understand and apply the concepts and methods of the social sciences.

Social and behavioral sciences will enable you to analyze the world in which you live, understand human behavior, develop sensitivity to various cultures and an appreciation of how societies change. The concepts, methods and theories learned in this area of study can be applied to your every day work and personal life. The Social Science and Human Services Department and The Center for Ethnic Studies offer a wide range of courses and opportunities, including study abroad programs, to achieve this goal. Such knowledge and skills will be reinforced through other academic courses and college experiences and will prepare you for careers as varied as education, business and law.

Scientific Reasoning: Students will understand and apply concepts and methods of natural sciences.

You will gain an understanding of the natural sciences and learn the process to create and test a hypothesis. You will gain these skills primarily in science courses.

Arts & Humanities: Students will develop knowledge and understanding of languages, arts and cultures.

In any society, culture and the arts help people understand who they are while giving meaning to the world around them. In a city such as New York, with its diverse population and rich cultural heritage, the ability to interpret the world through arts and languages is very important. At BMCC, you will have many opportunities to build these skills by taking classes in art and music, language, theatre or literature. These skills may also be enforced through participation in school exhibits, plays, and attendance at events that showcase the arts and humanities.

Information & Technology Literacy: Students will collect, evaluate, and interpret information, and effectively use information technologies.

Information technology, the ability to find, understand and use information, is one of the foundational skills you will use throughout your entire academic career. Today, most information is found through one or more information technologies so you must learn to use them. The workplace will also put your information and technology skills to the test. You will be able to acquire these skills through courses and learning experiences offered by every academic department at BMCC. In addition, workshops, tutors, and the latest technology found in the Library, room S410, and the Learning Resource Center (LRC), room S510, will help you achieve this goal.

CUNY Pathways at BMCC

In fall 2013, CUNY implemented the Pathways initiative across its undergraduate colleges. Pathways established a new system of general education requirements and new transfer guidelines across the University - and by doing so reinforced CUNY's educational excellence while easing student transfer between CUNY colleges.

The Pathways Common Core framework at BMCC is made up of two elements - the Required Common Core and the Flexible Common Core.

Common Core - 30 credits

Required Common Core (12 credits / 4 courses)
- English Composition (2 courses)
- Mathematical and Quantitative Reasoning (1 course)
- Life and Physical Sciences (1 course)

Flexible Common Core (18 credits/6 courses)
- World Cultures and Global Issues (1 course)
- U.S. Experience in its Diversity (1 course)
- Creative Expression (2 courses)
- Individual and Society (1 course)
- Scientific World (1 course)

 BMCC has specified how the sixth Flexible Common Core course must be chosen, depending on your major.

For more information on Pathways, please visit www.bmcc.cuny.edu/pathways

Transfer Information

When should you begin thinking about and preparing for transfer to another college? The moment you enroll at BMCC! Early preparation and planning lead to more desirable results. Here are some of the benefits to early transfer preparation:

- You will be able to investigate different schools and find exactly the one that fits you both academically and socially.
- You will be able to research and apply for available scholarships.
- You will feel more in control of the transfer process.
- You can speak with admissions and transfer counselors from the different schools you are looking to transfer to.

Now that you know the benefits, here are the transfer steps:

- Research the major of your choice as soon as possible.
- Stop by the Academic Advisement & Transfer Center (room S108) to see which 4-year college(s) offers your major.
- Check to see if BMCC has any articulation agreements in that major, or with the college you are interested in (An articulation agreement formally partners an associate degree program with a baccalaureate degree program. The agreement maximizes the number of credits the student transfers to the senior college and allows for a seamless transfer).

• Attend a BMCC Transfer Fair or “Individual College Visit” to meet with a college representative for details about your intended program and general college information.

• Make sure all BMCC program and college requirements are or will be completed.

• Have the college application and essay, if required, completed BEFORE the deadline.

• Request that an official BMCC transcript be sent to the college(s) of your choice from the Registrar’s Office, room S315.

Degree Completion and Transfer Benefit
Whether you wish to transfer to a CUNY senior college or a private or public institution, completing your associate degree at BMCC will go a long way to assuring your future academic success. Here are five other top reasons to consider:

5. You have something to walk away with!
   You will have more than just a high school diploma or a GED.

4. You have an “insurance policy” on a completed body of work!
   Schools are more likely to take all of your credits.

3. You save an awful lot of money by completing the first leg of your education here.

2. You become a more desirable candidate to other colleges and employers because you complete your degree!

1. Because when you “Start Here,” and complete your 60 (to 62) degree credits, you can “Go Anywhere.”

Articulation Agreements and How They Work
In order to further support the smooth transition from a two-year to a four-year college, the Office of Academic Affairs works diligently to foster articulation agreements with senior institutions. Although these agreements do not guarantee admission to a particular school, they do guarantee that all degree courses will be accepted if the guidelines are strictly followed. For a complete list of BMCC’s current articulation agreements listed by majors, please visit our website at: www.bmcc.cuny.edu/transfercntr/transferinfo/agreements.html.

Sister College Recruitment
BMCC has developed strong relationships with Wellesley, Mt. Holyoke and Smith Colleges, three of the five prestigious sister colleges located in New England. These colleges visit our campus annually to recruit from our large group of academically successful female students who are 24 years and older. Some of these programs offer special housing and scholarship awards for those who qualify.
The Community College Transfer Opportunity Program (CCTOP)

CCTOP makes it easier for you to transfer from any of the participating community colleges, including BMCC, to New York University - Steinhardt School of Education, Silver School of Social Work and School of Continuing and Professional Studies-Paul McGhee Division. This is done by offering transfer agreements that allow you to maximize the number of credits you can transfer, scholarships to help you meet the cost of tuition, and an advisor to answer all of your questions and help you make a successful transition to NYU.

CUNY TIPPS

Don’t you wish there was some way to tell whether or not your courses will transfer to any CUNY senior college, such as Baruch, City College or Hunter? Well there is! The CUNY TIPPS website will allow you to find out whether or not the CUNY senior college you wish to transfer to will accept your credits. There is also a listing of the many articulation agreements within CUNY itself. For more information, please visit the CUNY TIPPS website at www.tipps.cuny.edu.

Transfer Application Process

Now that you have decided which school(s) you want to apply to, where do you go from here? Once you have researched your choice school(s) and determined that you meet the minimum requirements, get an application! All you have to do after that is fill out the application and request your official transcripts.

The CUNY application can be accessed online at www.cuny.edu. Many, if not most, colleges prefer that you fill out their applications online; however you can request the applications from the individual colleges directly. Finally, if you have any questions or need help completing your applications, the Academic Advisement & Transfer Center is here to help you any way they can. Just stop in room S108 and speak with one of their advisors.

E-Advisement

E-advisement is a service offered to all students (BMCC & non-BMCC), who have questions concerning academics at BMCC. All inquiries are answered via the Internet within 48 hours (during regular advisement periods). Please go to www bmcc cuny edu/transfercntr e advising html to utilize this service.

Academic Audit

During the semester before your last, you will be invited to meet with an advisor to make sure you are on-track to graduate the next semester. At this time, you will be made aware of the need for completing any remaining degree requirements (including courses and remedial requirements).
Nontraditional Career Academic Services

More and more students are discovering that they have the abilities and interests to excel in careers that have been traditionally been considered nontraditional. Nontraditional careers defy conventional gender-based roles. Below you will find the listing of majors that are considered nontraditional by gender:

For Men
- Accounting
- Early Childhood Education
- Health Information Technology
- Nursing

For Women
- Business Administration
- Business Management
- Computer Network Technology
- Video Arts & Technology
- Small Business Entrepreneurship

If you are enrolled in any of the above mentioned programs, you will be provided with personalized academic advisement. This advisement includes, but is not limited to, semester advisement, course and curriculum planning, transfer advisement, and career mentorship. Special programs, such as transfer fairs to senior colleges offering nontraditional majors, round-table and panel discussions from leaders in the career fields, site visits, and open houses are available.
Student Clubs

How do I find out about student clubs?
The Offices of Student Activities (S234) oversees the clubs and will be happy to help you find a club. Student Activities works in collaboration with the Student Government Association (S242) to monitor clubs and assist students in forming new clubs. The SGA charters and funds all student clubs. Club leaders must maintain certain grade point averages. Visit our website at www.bmcc.cuny.edu/clubs for information about leadership requirements, as well as how to start a club.

Attendance and Lateness

Absences
The maximum number of absence hours is limited to one more class hour than the contact hours as indicated in the BMCC college catalog. For example, you may be enrolled in a four hour class that meets four times a week. You are allowed five hours of absence, not five days. In the case of excessive absence, the instructor has the option to lower the grade or assign an F or WU grade.

Class Attendance
If you do not attend class at least once in the first three weeks of the course, the instructor is required to assign a grade of WN.

Lateness
Classes begin promptly at the times indicated in the Schedule of Classes. Arrival in classes after the scheduled starting time constitutes lateness. Latecomers may, at the discretion of the instructor, incur an official absence.

Bicycles
Bicycles are not permitted inside college buildings at any time. Bicycle racks are available at the Harrison Street and North Moore Street entrances of the main building and at the Park Place entrance inside Fiterman Hall. The racks are provided for your convenience and use on a daily basis; however, the college cannot accept responsibility or liability for the security of the bicycle. Bicycles may not be attached to any other fixture or structure of the college or interfere with pedestrian traffic. The college reserves the right to clip the locks of and dispose of any bicycles left overnight or attached to unauthorized fixtures.

Cell Phones and Other Devices
The use of cell phones is prohibited in classrooms, labs, the library, all theatres, and any other areas where instruction or an organized function is taking place. In addition, students are prohibited from playing radios on the college premises.

Children on Campus
The college has an obligation to its students, faculty, staff, and visitors to conduct its operations and maintain its facilities in a manner consistent with its mission as an institution of higher education. For this reason, young children who are not registered in the child care center should not be brought to campus, and, of course, may not attend classes with their parent or guardian.

There may be occasions when brief visits by children of students may be necessary. Children may visit college offices and facilities, other than classrooms, for limited periods of time when their parent or guardian is conducting routine business at the college. Regular repeated visits by children are not permitted.

In no case, are children permitted in labs, shops, construction/repair sites, or other areas where potential hazards exist. Children brought on campus must be directly supervised at all times by their parent or guardian.
Drugs and Alcohol
It is the policy of The City University of New York and BMCC that any action or situation which recklessly or intentionally endangers the mental or physical health or involves the forced consumption of liquor or drugs for the purpose of initiation or affiliation with any organization, is prohibited. BMCC is a drug and alcohol free campus, except in cases of educational purposes authorized by the college. The unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensation, possession, or use of illegal drugs or other controlled substances by the students or employees on the university/college premises or as part of any university/college activities is prohibited. Employees of the university must also notify the college personnel director of any criminal drug statute conviction for a violation occurring in the work place not later than (5) days after such conviction.

The unlawful possession, use, or distribution of alcohol, by students or employees on university/college premises or as part of any university/college activities is prohibited. The legal age for drinking alcohol in New York State is 21, and state law deals harshly with underage drinking. It is also against the law in New York State to sell or give alcohol to anyone under the age of 21.

The possession or use of illegal drugs is a crime in the State of New York. Anyone found in possession of or using such drugs on college property will be severely dealt with and will face criminal charges.

Elevators
Elevators may not be used by students. This rule is waived only for students who have chronic or acute physical disabilities or who are non-ambulatory. Students should utilize the escalators and stairways.

Food
Food should not be eaten in classrooms and hallways. Food should be consumed in the cafeteria on the second floor. In addition to the cafeteria, students may obtain snacks from vending machines, which are also on the second floor, of the main building 199 Chambers St. At the Fiterman Hall building, vending machines accept ATM debit/credit cards and are located on floors 7, 9, and 11. In the Murray building, vending machines are located on floors 2 and 10. Students should bus their own trays and help to keep the cafeteria and snack bar areas clean.

Identification
Every BMCC student must wear a validated identification (ID) card at all times. Students need their ID card to enter the college, to enter the library, to borrow library books, or to collect student paychecks from the college. Students are expected to present their ID card to any college official (security officer, administrator, faculty and staff member, etc.) who requests such identification. For additional information on ID cards, contact the Office of Public Safety.

Literature
Posting of flyers, handouts, or other types of literature without authorization is prohibited. All literature posted in the college should be approved by Office of Student Activities, room S234.

Loitering
Loitering is prohibited at BMCC. Persons on campus without permission or proper ID may be subject to warning, suspension, expulsion, or arrest.
Pets
Animals or pets of any type are not permitted on the BMCC Campus. The presence of animals or pets violates the Public Health Law and College Policy. Seeing eye dogs are exempt from this policy.

Plagiarism
Plagiarism is the presentation of someone else’s ideas, words, or artistic/scientific/technical work as one’s own creation. A student who copies or paraphrases published or on-line material, or another person’s research, without properly identifying the source(s) is committing plagiarism.

Plagiarism violates the ethical and academic standards of our college. Students will be held responsible for such violations, even when unintentional. To avoid unintended plagiarism, students should consult with their instructors about when and how to document their sources. The library also has both print and digital guides designed to help students cite sources correctly.

Plagiarism carries a range of penalties commensurate with severity of the infraction. The instructor may, for example, require the work to be redone, reduce the course grade, fail the student in the course, or refer the case to the Faculty-Student Disciplinary Committee. Cases referred to that committee could result in suspension or expulsion from the college.

Solicitation
Soliciting or fundraising of any kind without proper authorization is not permitted.

Computer User Responsibilities
Note: City University of New York Computer User Responsibilities is a statement originally prepared by the University’s Computer Policy Committee. It underwent review by the University Faculty Senate and the CUNY Office of the Vice Chancellor for Legal Affairs.

The City University of New York Policy on Acceptable Use of Computer Resources:
I. Introduction
CUNY’s computer resources are dedicated to the support of the University’s mission of education, research and public service. In furtherance of this mission, CUNY respects, upholds and endeavors to safeguard the principles of academic freedom, freedom of expression and freedom of inquiry.

CUNY recognizes that there is a concern among the University community that because information created, used, transmitted or stored in electronic form is by its nature susceptible to disclosure, invasion, loss, and similar risks, electronic communications and transactions will be particularly vulnerable to infringements of academic freedom. CUNY's commitment to the principles of academic freedom and freedom of expression includes electronic information. Therefore, whenever possible, CUNY will resolve doubts about the need to access CUNY Computer Resources in favor of a User's privacy interest.

However, the use of CUNY Computer Resources, including for electronic transactions and communications, like the use of other University-provided resources and activities, is subject to the requirements of legal and ethical behavior. This policy is intended to support the free exchange of ideas among members of the CUNY community and between the CUNY community and other communities, while recognizing the responsibilities and limitations associated with such exchange.

II. Applicability
This policy applies to all Users of CUNY Computer Resources, as defined in Article III below.

This policy supersedes the CUNY policy titled “CUNY Computer User Responsibilities” and any college policies that are inconsistent with this policy.

III. Definitions
1. “CUNY Computer Resources” refers to all computer and information technology hardware, software, data, access and other resources owned, operated, or contracted by CUNY. This includes, but is not limited to, desktop and laptop computers, handheld devices that allow or are capable of storing and transmitting information (e.g., cell phones, tablets), mainframes, minicomputers, servers, network facilities, databases, memory, memory sticks, and associated peripherals and software, and the applications they support, such as e-mail, cloud computing applications, and access to the internet.

2. “E-mail” includes point-to-point messages, postings to newsgroups and listservs, and other electronic messages involving computers and computer networks.

3. “Faculty” includes full-time, part-time, and adjunct faculty.

4. “FOIL” is the New York State Freedom of Information Law.

5. “Non-Public University Information” has the meaning set forth in CUNY's IT Security Policies and Procedures found at security.cuny.edu, namely: personally identifiable information (such as an individual's Social Security Number; driver's license number or non-driver identification card number; account number, credit or debit card number, in combination with any required security code, access code, or password that would permit access to an individual’s financial account; personal electronic mail address; Internet identification name or password; and parent’s surname prior to marriage); information in student education records that is protected under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA) and the related regulations set forth in 34 CFR Part 99; other information relating to the administrative, business, and academic activities and operations of the University (including employee evaluations, employee home addresses and telephone numbers, and other employee records that should be treated confidentially); and any other information available in University files and systems that by its nature should be treated confidentially.

6. “User” means a user of CUNY Computer Resources, including all current and former users, whether affiliated with CUNY or not, and whether accessing those resources on a CUNY campus or remotely.
IV. Rules for Use of CUNY Computer Resources

1. Authorization.

a. Users may not access a CUNY Computer Resource without authorization or use it for purposes beyond the scope of authorization. This includes attempting to circumvent CUNY Computer Resource system protection facilities by hacking, cracking or similar activities, accessing or using another person’s computer account, and allowing another person to access or use the User’s account.

b. Notwithstanding subsection 1.a. above, a User may authorize a colleague or clerical assistant to access information under the User’s account on the User’s behalf while away from a CUNY campus or when the User is unable to efficiently access the information on the User’s own behalf (including as a result of a disability), but delegated access will be subject to the rules of Section 10 – Security, below.

c. CUNY Computer Resources may not be used to gain unauthorized access to another computer system within or outside of CUNY. Users are responsible for all actions performed from their computer account that they permitted or failed to prevent by following ordinary security precautions. CUNY advisories and resources are available at security.cuny.edu.

2. Purpose.

a. Use of CUNY Computer Resources is limited to activities relating to the performance by CUNY employees of their duties and responsibilities and by students in connection with their college courses and activities. For example, use of CUNY Computer Resources for private commercial or not-for-profit business purposes, for private advertising of products or services, or for any activity meant solely to foster personal gain, is prohibited. Similarly, use of CUNY Computer Resources for partisan political activity is also prohibited.

b. Except with respect to CUNY employees other than faculty, where a supervisor has prohibited it in writing, incidental personal use of CUNY Computer Resources is permitted so long as such use does not interfere with CUNY operations, does not compromise the functioning of CUNY Computer Resources, does not interfere with the User’s employment or other obligations to CUNY, and is otherwise in compliance with this policy, including subsection 2.a. above. Users should be aware that personal messages, data and other information sent or received through a User’s CUNY account or otherwise residing in a CUNY Computer Resource are subject to CUNY review pursuant to Section 13 of this policy and may also be subject to public disclosure pursuant to FOIL.

3. Compliance with Law.

a. CUNY Computer Resources may not be used for any purpose or in any manner that violates CUNY rules, regulations or policies, or federal, state or local law. Users who engage in electronic communications with persons in other states or countries or on other systems or networks may also be subject to the laws of those other states and countries, and the rules and policies of those other systems and networks. Users are responsible for ascertaining, understanding, and complying with the laws, rules, policies, contracts, and licenses applicable to their particular use.

b. Examples of applicable federal and state laws include those addressing defamation, invasion of privacy, obscenity and child pornography, and online gambling, as well as the following:
Computer Fraud and Abuse Act Copyright Act of 1976
Electronic Communications Privacy Act Export control regulations issued by the U.S.
Departments of Commerce, State and Treasury Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act FOIL New York State Law with respect to the confidentiality of library records
c. Examples of applicable CUNY rules and policies include those listed below.
Other rules and policies may be found in the Manual of General Policy and on the CUNY Legal Affairs website:
Gramm-Leach-Bliley Information Security Program
IT Security Policies & Procedures
Policy on Maintenance of Public Order (the “Henderson Rules”)
Sexual Harassment Policy University Policy on Academic Integrity
Web Site Privacy Policy
a. Users may use only legally obtained, licensed data or software and must comply with applicable licenses or other contracts, as well as copyright, trademark and other intellectual property laws.
b. Much of what appears on the internet and/or is distributed via electronic communication is protected by copyright law, regardless of whether the copyright is expressly noted. Users should generally assume that material is copyrighted unless they know otherwise, and not copy, download or distribute copyrighted material without permission unless the use does not exceed fair use as defined by the federal Copyright Act of 1976. Protected material may include, among other things, text, photographs, audio, video, graphic illustrations, and computer software. Additional information regarding copyright and file sharing is available on the CUNY Legal Affairs website.
5. False Identity and Harassment. Users may not employ a false identity, mask the identity of an account or computer, or use CUNY Computer Resources to engage in abuse of others, such as sending harassing, obscene, threatening, abusive, deceptive, or anonymous messages within or outside CUNY.
6. Confidentiality.
a. Users may not invade the privacy of others by, among other things, viewing, copying, redistributing, posting such data to the Internet, modifying or destroying data or programs belonging to or containing personal or confidential information about others, without explicit permission to do so.
b. CUNY employees must take precautions by following all IT Security Policies and Procedures to protect the confidentiality of Non-Public University Information encountered in the performance of their duties or otherwise.
7. Integrity of Computer Resources. Users may not install, use or develop programs intended to infiltrate or damage a CUNY Computer Resource, or which could reasonably be expected to cause, directly or indirectly, excessive strain or theft of confidential data on any computing facility. This includes, but is not limited to, programs known as computer viruses, Trojan horses, and worms. Users should consult with the IT director at their college before installing any programs on CUNY Computer Resources that they are not sure are safe or may cause excess strain.
8. Disruptive Activities.
a. CUNY Computer Resources must not be used in a manner that could reasonably be expected to cause or does cause, directly or indirectly, unwarranted or unsolicited interference with the activity of other users, including:
i. chain letters, virus hoaxes or other e-mail transmissions that potentially disrupt normal e-mail service;

ii. spamming, junk mail or other unsolicited mail that is not related to CUNY business and is sent without a reasonable expectation that the recipient would welcome receiving it;

iii. the inclusion on e-mail lists of individuals who have not requested membership on the lists, other than the inclusion of members of the CUNY community on lists related to CUNY business; and

iv. downloading of large videos, films or similar media files for personal use.

b. CUNY has the right to require Users to limit or refrain from other specific uses if, in the opinion of the IT director at the User’s college, such use interferes with efficient operations of the system, subject to appeal to the President or, in the case of central office staff, to the Chancellor.

9. CUNY Names and Trademarks.
a. CUNY names, trademarks and logos belong to the University and are protected by law. Users of CUNY Computer Resources may not state or imply that they speak on behalf of CUNY or use a CUNY name, trademark or logo without authorization to do so. Affiliation with CUNY does not, by itself, imply authorization to speak on behalf of CUNY.

b. Notwithstanding subsection 9.a. above, CUNY employees and students may indicate their CUNY affiliation on e-mail, other correspondence, and in academic or professionally-related research, publications or professional appearances, so long as they do not state or imply that they are speaking on behalf of the University.

a. CUNY employs various measures to protect the security of its computer resources and of Users’ accounts. However, CUNY cannot guarantee such security. Users are responsible for engaging in safe computing practices such as guarding and not sharing their passwords, changing passwords regularly, logging out of systems at the end of use, and protecting Non-Public University Information, as well as for following CUNY’s IT Security Policies and Procedures.

b. Users must report incidents of non-compliance with IT Security Policies and Procedures or other security incidents to the University Chief Information Officer and Chief Information Security Officer, and the Chief Information Officer at the affected User’s college.

11. Filtering. CUNY reserves the right to install spam, anti-malware, and spyware filters and similar devices if necessary in the judgment of CUNY’s Office of Information Technology or a college IT director to protect the security and integrity of CUNY Computer Resources. CUNY will not install filters that restrict access to e-mail, instant messaging, chat rooms or websites based solely on content, unless such content is illegal, such as child pornography sites.

12. Confidential Research Information. Principal investigators and others who use CUNY Computer Resources to collect, examine, analyze, transmit or store research information that is required by law or regulation to be held confidential or for which a promise of confidentiality has been given are responsible for taking steps to protect such confidential research information from unauthorized access or modification. In general, this means storing the information on a computer or auxiliary hard drive that provides strong access controls (passwords) and encrypting files, documents, and messages for protection against inadvertent or unauthorized disclosure while in storage or in transit over data networks. Robust encryption and passwords must be used to protect Non-Public University Information, and is strongly recommended for information stored electronically on all computers, especially portable devices such as notebook computers, Personal Digital Assistants (PDAs), and portable data storage (e.g., auxiliary hard drives, memory sticks) that are vulnerable to theft or loss, as well as for information transmitted over public networks. Software and protocols used should be reviewed and approved by CUNY’s Office of Information Technology. In addition, the steps taken to protect such confidential research information should be included in submissions to the CUNY Institutional Review Board reviewing the research protocol.

13. CUNY Access to Computer Resources.

a. Copying. CUNY may copy a User’s account and/or hard drive on a CUNY Computer Resource, without monitoring or inspecting the contents of such account and/or hard drive, at any time for preservation of data or evidence, without notice to the User.

b. General Monitoring Practices. CUNY does not routinely monitor, inspect, or disclose individual usage of CUNY Computer Resources without the User’s consent. In most instances, if the University needs information located in a CUNY Computer Resource, it will simply request it from the author or custodian. However, CUNY IT professionals and staff do regularly monitor general usage patterns as part of normal system operations and maintenance and might, in connection with these duties, observe the contents of web sites, e-mail or other electronic communications. Except as provided in this policy or by law, these individuals are not permitted to seek out contents or transactional information, or disclose or otherwise use what they have observed. Nevertheless, because of the inherent vulnerability of computer technology to unauthorized intrusions, Users have no guarantee of privacy during any use of CUNY computer resources or in any data in them, whether or not a password or other entry identification or encryption is used. Users may expect that the privacy of their electronic communications and of any materials stored in any CUNY Computer Resource dedicated to their use will not be intruded upon by CUNY except as outlined in this policy.

c. Monitoring without Notice.

i. Categories. CUNY may specifically monitor or inspect the activity and accounts of individual users of CUNY computer resources, including individual login sessions, e-mail and other communications, without notice, in the following circumstances:

A. when the User has voluntarily made them accessible to the public, as by posting to Usenet or a web page;

B. when it is reasonably necessary to do so to protect the integrity, security, or functionality of CUNY or other computer resources, as determined by the college chief information officer or his or her designee, after consultation with CUNY’s chief information officer or his or her designee;

C. when it is reasonably necessary to diagnose and resolve technical problems involving system hardware, software, or communications, as determined by the college chief information officer or his or her designee, after consultation with CUNY’s chief information officer or his or her designee;

D. when it is reasonably necessary to determine whether CUNY may be vulnerable to liability, or when failure to act might result in significant bodily harm, significant property loss or damage, or loss of evidence, as determined by the college president or a vice president designated by the president or, in the case of the Central Office by the Chancellor or his or her designee, after consultation with the Office of General Counsel and the Chair of the University Faculty Senate (if a current CUNY faculty member’s account or activity is involved) or Vice Chair if the Chair is unavailable;

E. when there is a reasonable basis to believe that CUNY policy or federal, state or local law has been or is being violated, as determined by the college president or a vice president designated by the president or, in the case of the Central Office by the Chancellor or his or her designee, after consultation with the Office of General Counsel and the Chair of the University Faculty Senate (if a current CUNY faculty member’s account or activity is involved) or Vice Chair if the Chair is unavailable;

F. when an account appears to be engaged in unusual or unusually excessive activity, as indicated by the monitoring of general activity and usage patterns, as determined by the college president or a vice president designated by the president and the college chief information officer or his or her designee or, in the case of the Central Office by the Chancellor or his or her designee, after consultation with CUNY’s chief information officer or his or her designee, the Office of General Counsel, and the Chair of the University Faculty Senate (if a current CUNY faculty member’s account or activity is involved) or Vice Chair if the Chair is unavailable; or

G. as otherwise required by law.

ii. Procedures. In those situations in which the Chair of the University Faculty Senate is to be consulted prior to monitoring or inspecting an account or activity, the following procedures shall apply:

A. if the monitoring or inspection of an account or activity requires physical entry into a faculty member’s office, the faculty member shall be advised prior thereto and shall be permitted to be present to observe, except where specifically forbidden by law; and

B. the college president or the Chancellor, as the case may be, shall report the completion of the monitoring or inspection to the Chair and the CUNY employee affected, who shall also be told the reason for the monitoring or inspection, except where specifically forbidden by law.

iii. Other Disclosure.

A. CUNY, in its discretion, may disclose the results of any general or individual monitoring or inspection to appropriate CUNY personnel or agents, or law enforcement or other agencies. The results may be used in college disciplinary proceedings, discovery proceedings in legal actions, or otherwise as is necessary to protect the interests of the University.

B. In addition, users should be aware that CUNY may be required to disclose to the public under FOIL communications made by means of CUNY Computer Resources whether in conjunction with University business or as incidental personal use.

C. Any disclosures of activity of accounts of individual Users to persons or entities outside of CUNY, whether discretionary or required by law, shall be approved by the General Counsel and shall be conducted in accordance with any applicable law. Except where specifically forbidden by law, CUNY employees subject to such disclosures shall be informed promptly after the disclosure of the actions taken and the reasons for them.

iv. Annual Statement. The Office of General Counsel shall issue an annual statement of the instances of account monitoring or inspection that fall within categories D through G above. The statement shall indicate the number of such instances and the cause and result of each. No personally identifiable data shall be included in this statement.

v. Privacy Policy. See CUNY's Web Site Privacy Policy for additional information regarding data collected by CUNY from visitors to the CUNY website at www.cuny.edu.

14. Waiver of Policy.

a. A CUNY employee or student may apply to the General Counsel for an exception or waiver from one or more of the provisions of this policy. Such application may be for a single use or for periodic or continuous uses, such as in connection with a course or program. Any application for a waiver should be made prior to using the CUNY Computer Resource for the purposes described in the application.

b. The written waiver application must state:
   i. the policy provision or provisions for which the User is seeking a waiver;
   ii. how the User plans to use CUNY Computer Resource to be covered by the waiver and the reasons why the User believes a waiver should be approved;
   iii. if the waiver involves confidential research information, what steps will be taken to protect such information;
   iv. the length of time for which the waiver is being requested; and
   v. if a student, how and by whom the student will be supervised.

c. The General Counsel shall consult with the CUNY's chief information officer and the president of the applicant's college (or, if the applicant is a Central Office employee, the Chancellor) or their designees, prior to making a determination regarding the application.

d. Users should be aware that CUNY cannot waive federal, state or local law; for example, the contents of CUNY Computer Resources (including confidential research information) may be subject to a valid subpoena regardless of the terms of any waiver.

15. Enforcement.

a. Violation of this policy may result in suspension or termination of an individual's right of access to CUNY Computer Resources, disciplinary action by appropriate CUNY authorities, referral to law enforcement authorities for criminal prosecution, or other legal action, including action to recover civil damages and penalties.

b. Violations will normally be handled through the University disciplinary procedures applicable to the relevant User. For example, alleged violations by students will normally be investigated, and any penalties or other discipline will normally be imposed, by the Office of Student Affairs.

c. CUNY has the right to temporarily suspend computer use privileges and to remove from CUNY computer resources material it believes violates this policy, pending the outcome of an investigation of misuse or finding of violation. This power may be exercised only by the president of each college or the Chancellor.

16. Additional Rules. Additional rules, policies, guidelines and/or restrictions may be in effect for specific computers, systems, or networks, or at specific computer facilities at the discretion of the directors of those facilities. Any such rules which potentially limit the privacy or confidentiality of electronic communications or information contained in or delivered by or over CUNY Computer Resources will be subject to the substantive and procedural safeguards provided by this policy.

17. Disclaimer.
   a. CUNY shall not be responsible for any damages, costs or other liabilities of any nature whatsoever with regard to the use of CUNY Computer Resources. This includes, but is not limited to, damages caused by unauthorized access to CUNY Computer Resources, data loss, or other damages resulting from delays, non-deliveries, or service interruptions, whether or not resulting from circumstances under the CUNY’s control.

b. Users receive and use information obtained through CUNY Computer Resources at their own risk. CUNY makes no warranties (expressed or implied) with respect to the use of CUNY Computer Resources. CUNY accepts no responsibility for the content of web pages or graphics that are linked from CUNY web pages, for any advice or information received by a user through use of CUNY Computer Resources, or for any costs or charges incurred by a user as a result of seeking or accepting such advice or information.

c. CUNY reserves the right to change this policy and other related policies at any time. CUNY reserves any rights and remedies that it may have under any applicable law, rule or regulation. Nothing contained in this policy will in any way act as a waiver of such rights and remedies.

Policy Statement
The City University of New York (“CUNY”) disapproves of violence against women, men, or children in any form, whether as an act of workplace violence or in any employee’s personal life. Domestic violence can spill over into the workplace, compromising the safety of both victims and co-workers and resulting in lost productivity, increased health care costs, increased absenteeism, and increased employee turnover. CUNY is committed to full compliance of all applicable laws governing domestic violence in the workplace, to promoting the health and safety of its employees, and to making a significant and continual difference in the fight to end domestic violence. CUNY will review this policy annually and will notify all employees and the New York State Office for the Prevention of Domestic Violence (“OPDV”) of any revisions.

I. Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Policy

BMCC is an Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action Institution. It is the policy of BMCC to recruit, employ, retain, promote, and provide benefits to employees and to admit and provide services for students without regard to race, color, creed, national origin, ethnicity, ancestry, religion, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity, marital status, partnership status, disability, genetic information, alienage, citizenship, military or veteran status, pregnancy, or status as a victim of domestic violence/stalking/sex offenses, or any other legally prohibited basis in accordance with federal, state and city laws. It is also BMCC’s Policy to provide reasonable accommodations when appropriate to individuals with disabilities, individuals observing religious practices, or employees who are victims of domestic violence/stalking/sex offenses. This Policy also prohibits retaliation for reporting or opposing discrimination, or cooperating with an investigation of a discrimination complaint.

Iyana Titus, Esq., is the College’s Chief Diversity Officer, Coordinator for Title IX, which prohibits sex discrimination in federally assisted education programs, and Coordinator for the Americans with Disabilities Act and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, which prohibits discrimination on the basis of disability. Her office is located in Room S701I and her telephone number is 212-220-1236. II. Sexual Harassment Policy Borough of Manhattan Community College adheres to the Policy Against Sexual Harassment adopted by the Board of Trustees of The City University of New York (CUNY). It is the policy of The CUNY to promote a cooperative work and academic environment in which there exists mutual respect for all University students, faculty, and staff. Harassment of employees or students based upon sex is inconsistent with this objective and contrary to the University’s non-discrimination policy. Sexual harassment is illegal under Federal, State, and City laws and will not be tolerated within the University.

What is Sexual Harassment?

Sexual harassment is defined as unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other oral or written communications or physical conduct of a sexual nature when:

• submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual’s employment or academic standing;

• submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as a basis for employment or academic decisions affecting such individual; or

• such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual’s work or academic performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or abusive work or academic environment.

This policy applies to all BMCC faculty, staff, and students, to all BMCC sponsored programs on or off the campus, and to visitors, vendors, contractors, etc., engaged in an activity or program on the campus.

Where should you go for assistance?

All members of the BMCC Sexual Harassment Awareness and Intake Committee have been certified through extensive training to respond to inquiries and complaints.
of sexual harassment from any member of the college community. Student or employee complaints should be directed to any one of the committee members. All materials concerning Sexual Harassment are available in Room S750d and messages can be left there for other committee members. All committee members have an obligation to maintain confidentiality to the fullest extent possible.

Henderson Rules
The tradition of the University as a sanctuary of academic freedom and center of informed discussion is an honored one, to be guarded vigilantly. The basic significance of that sanctuary lies in the protection of intellectual freedoms: the rights of professors to teach, of scholars to engage in the advancement of knowledge, of students to learn and to express their views, free from external pressures or interference. These freedoms can flourish only in an atmosphere of mutual respect, civility, and trust among teachers and students, only when members of the University community are willing to accept self-restraint and reciprocity as the condition upon which they share in its intellectual autonomy. Academic freedom and the sanctuary of the University campus extend to all who share these aims and responsibilities. They cannot be invoked by those who would subordinate intellectual freedom to political ends, or who violate the norms of conduct established to protect that freedom. Against such offenders the University has the right, and indeed the obligation, to defend itself. We accordingly announce the following rules and regulations to be in effect at each of our colleges which are to be administered in accordance with the requirements of due process as provided in the Bylaws of the Board of Higher Education.

With respect to enforcement of these rules and regulations we note that the Bylaws of the Board of Higher Education provide that:

“THE PRESIDENT. The president, with respect to his/her education unit, shall:

a. Have the affirmative responsibility of conserving and enhancing the educational standards of the college and schools under his/her jurisdiction;

b. Be the advisor and executive agent of the Board and of his/her respective College Committee and as such shall have the immediate supervision with full discretionary power in carrying into effect the Bylaws, resolutions, and policies of the Board, the lawful resolutions of any of its committees and the policies, programs and lawful resolutions of the several facilities;
c. Exercise general superintendence over the concerns, officers, employees, and students of his/her educational unit.”

RULES
1. A member of the academic community shall not intentionally obstruct and/or forcibly prevent others from the exercise of their rights. Nor shall he/she interfere with the institution’s educational processes or facilities, or the rights of those who wish to avail themselves of any of the institution’s instructional, personal, administrative, recreational, and community services.

2. Individuals are liable for failure to comply with lawful directions issued by representatives of the University/College when they are acting in their official capacities. Members of the academic community are required to show their identification cards when requested to do so by an official of the college.

3. Unauthorized occupancy of University/College facilities or blocking access to or from such areas is prohibited. Permission from appropriate college authorities must be obtained for removal, relocation, and use of University College equipment and/or supplies.

4. Theft from, or damage to University/College premises or property, or theft of or damage to property of any person on University/College premises is prohibited.

5. Each member of the academic community or an invited guest has the right to advocate his/her position without having to fear abuse, physical, verbal, or otherwise, from others supporting conflicting points of view. Members of the academic community and other persons on the college grounds shall not use language or take actions reasonably likely to provoke or encourage physical violence by demonstrators, those demonstrated against, or spectators.

6. Action may be taken against any and all persons who have no legitimate reason for their presence on any campus within the University/College, or whose presence on any such campus obstructs and/or forcibly prevents others from the exercise of their rights or interferes with the institution’s educational processes or facilities, or the rights of those who wish to avail themselves of any of the institution’s instructional, personal, administrative, recreational, and community services.

7. Disorderly or indecent conduct on University/College-owned or controlled property is prohibited.

8. No individual shall have in his/her possession a rifle, shotgun, or firearm or knowingly have in his/her possession any other dangerous instruments or material that can be used to inflict bodily harm on an individual or damage upon a building or the grounds of the University/College without the written authorization of such educational institution. Nor shall any individual have in his/her possession any other instrument or material which can be used and is intended to inflict bodily harm on any individual or damage upon a building or the grounds of the University/College.

9. Any action or situation which recklessly or intentionally endangers mental or physical health or involves the forced consumption of liquor or drugs for the purpose of initiation into or affiliation with any organization is prohibited.

10. The unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensation, possession, or use of illegal drugs or other controlled substances by University students or employees on University/College premises, or as part of any university or college activities is prohibited. Employees of the University must also notify the College Personnel Director of any criminal drug statute conviction for a violation occurring in the workplace not later than five (5) days after such conviction.

11. The unlawful possession, use, or distribution of alcohol by students or employees on University/College premises or as part of any University/College activities is prohibited.

Sexual Misconduct
RESOLVED, That the Board of Trustees of The City University of New York hereby adopts the Policy on Sexual Misconduct and rescind its prior Policy on Sexual Assault, which is superseded by the new Policy on Sexual Misconduct, effective January 1, 2015.

I. Policy Statement
Every member of The City University of New York community, including students, employees and visitors, deserves the opportunity to live, learn and work free from sexual harassment, gender-based harassment and sexual violence. Accordingly, CUNY is committed to:

1) Defining conduct that constitutes prohibited sexual harassment, gender-based harassment and sexual violence;
2) Providing clear guidelines for students, employees and visitors on how to report incidents of sexual harassment, gender-based harassment and sexual violence and a commitment that any complaints will be handled respectfully;
3) Promptly responding to and investigating allegations of sexual harassment, gender-based harassment and sexual violence, pursuing disciplinary action when appropriate, referring the incident to local law enforcement when appropriate, and taking action to investigate and address any allegations of retaliation;
4) Providing ongoing assistance and support to students and employees who make allegations of sexual harassment, gender-based harassment and sexual violence;
5) Providing awareness and prevention information on sexual harassment, gender-based harassment and sexual violence, including widely disseminating this policy, and implementing training and educational programs on sexual harassment, gender-based harassment and sexual violence to college constituencies; and
6) Gathering and analyzing information and data that will be reviewed in order to improve safety, reporting, responsiveness and the resolution of incidents.

This is the sole policy at CUNY addressing sexual harassment, gender-based harassment and sexual violence and is applicable at all college and units at the University. The CUNY community should also be aware of the following policies that apply to other forms of sex discrimination, as well as to other types of workplace violence and domestic violence that affect the workplace:

• The CUNY Policy on Equal Opportunity and Nondiscrimination prohibits discrimination on the basis of numerous protected characteristics in accordance with federal, state and local law. That policy addresses sex discrimination other than sexual harassment, gender-based harassment or sexual violence covered by this policy.
• The CUNY Workplace Violence Policy addresses workplace violence and the CUNY Domestic Violence in the Workplace Policy addresses domestic violence in or affecting employees in the workplace.

In addition, campus crime statistics, including statistics relating to sexual violence, which CUNY is required to report under the Jeanne Clery Act, are available from the Office of Public Safety at each college and/or on its Public Safety website.

II. Prohibited Conduct

A. Sexual Harassment, Gender-Based Harassment and Sexual Violence.

This policy prohibits sexual harassment, gender-based harassment and sexual violence against any CUNY student, employee or visitor.

Sexual harassment includes unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature, such as unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal, nonverbal, graphic and electronic communications or physical conduct that is sufficiently serious to adversely affect an individual's participation in employment, education or other CUNY activities.

Gender-based harassment is unwelcome conduct of a nonsexual nature based on an individual's actual or perceived sex, including conduct based on gender identity, gender expression, and nonconformity with gender stereotypes that is sufficiently serious to adversely affect an individual's participation in employment, education or other CUNY activities.

Sexual violence is an umbrella term that includes sexual assault, such as rape/attempted rape, criminal sexual act, forcible touching, and sexual abuse. If of a sexual nature, stalking/cyberstalking (hereinafter “stalking”) and dating, domestic and intimate partner violence may also constitute sexual harassment, gender-based harassment or sexual violence.

The complete definitions of these terms, as well as other key terms used in this policy, are set forth in Section XI below.

B. Retaliation. This policy prohibits retaliation against any person who reports sexual harassment, gender-based harassment or sexual violence, assists someone making such a report, or participates in any manner in an investigation or resolution of a sexual harassment, gender-based harassment or sexual violence complaint.

C. Certain Intimate Relationships. This policy also prohibits certain intimate relationships when they occur between a faculty member or employee and any student for whom he or she has a professional responsibility as set forth in Section X below.

III. Title IX Coordinator

Each college or unit of CUNY has an employee who has been designated as the Title IX Coordinator. This employee is responsible for compliance with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, which prohibits sex discrimination, including sexual harassment, gender-based harassment and sexual violence, in education programs. The Title IX Coordinator has overall responsibility for implementing this policy, including overseeing the investigation of complaints at her/his college or unit and carrying out the other functions of that position set forth in this policy. The name and contact information for all Title IX Coordinators at CUNY can be found on the university’s dedicated Title IX website at Campus Title IX Webpages.

IV. Immediate Assistance in Cases of Sexual Violence

A. Reporting to Law Enforcement

Students or employees who experience any form of sexual violence on or off-campus (including CUNY-sponsored trips and events) and visitors who experience sexual violence on a CUNY campus are strongly encouraged to immediately report the incident by calling 911, contacting their local police precinct, or contacting their college public safety office, which is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Campus public safety officers can also assist the complainant with filing a complaint both on and off-campus, and in obtaining immediate medical attention, counseling and other services.

B. Obtaining Immediate Medical Attention and Emotional Support
CUNY is committed to assisting anyone who experiences sexual violence to seek comprehensive medical attention as soon as possible to treat injuries, obtain preventative treatment for sexually transmitted diseases, and preserve evidence, among other things. For rapes in particular, immediate treatment and the preservation of evidence of the attack are important for many reasons, including facilitating a criminal investigation. In addition, individuals who have experienced or witnessed sexual violence are encouraged to seek emotional support as soon as possible, either on or off-campus.

On-campus resources include nurses and/or nurse practitioners at campus health offices and counselors at campus counseling centers. Counselors are trained to provide crisis intervention and provide referrals for longer-term care as necessary.

For off-campus resources, CUNY maintains a list of emergency contacts and resources, including rape crisis centers, available throughout New York City on its dedicated web page. This list includes a designation of which local hospitals are designated as SAFE (Sexual Assault Forensic Examiner) hospitals, which are specially equipped to handle sexual assaults and trained to gather evidence from such assaults.

V. Reporting Sexual Harassment, Gender-Based Harassment or Sexual Violence to the College
CUNY encourages individuals who have experienced sexual harassment, gender-based harassment or sexual violence (referred to in this policy as “complainants”) to report the incident(s) to campus authorities, even if they have reported the incident to outside law enforcement, and regardless of whether the incident took place on or off-campus. Such reporting will enable complainants to get the support they need, and provide the college with the information it needs to take appropriate action. However, individuals should be aware that there are employees at their college/unit whom they can speak with on a strictly confidential basis before determining whether to make a report to college authorities. See Section VI below.

A. Filing a Complaint with Campus Authorities
(i) Students. Students who experience sexual harassment, gender-based harassment or sexual violence should bring their complaint to one of the following campus officials/offices:
• Title IX Coordinator;
• Office of Public Safety;
• Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs and/or Dean of Students;
• Residence Life staff in CUNY owned or operated housing, including Resident Assistants.

(ii) Employees. Employees who experience sexual harassment, gender-based harassment or sexual violence should bring their complaint to one of the following campus officials/offices:
• Title IX Coordinator;

• Director of Human Resources;
• Office of Public Safety.

(iii) Visitors. Visitors who experience sexual harassment, gender-based harassment or sexual violence should bring their complaint to one of the following campus officials/offices:
• Title IX Coordinator;
• Office of Public Safety;
• Residence Life staff in CUNY owned or operated housing, including Resident Assistants.

Once any of the individuals or offices above is notified of an incident of sexual harassment, gender-based harassment or sexual violence, she/he will coordinate with the appropriate college offices to address the matter in accordance with this policy, including taking appropriate interim and supportive measures. All information in connection with the complaint, including the identities of the complainant and the respondent, will be kept as confidential as possible and will only be shared with those who have a legitimate need for the information.

B. Support Assistance for Complainants
When a Title IX Coordinator receives a complaint of sexual or gender-based violence, she/he will work with the Chief Student Affairs Officer to identify a trained staff member to assist the complainant with support services and accommodations.

C. Request that the College Maintain a Complainant’s Confidentiality, Not Conduct an Investigation, or Not Report an Incident to Outside Law Enforcement
After a report of an alleged incident of sexual harassment, gender-based harassment or sexual violence has been made to the Title IX Coordinator, a complainant may request that the matter be investigated without her/his identity or any details regarding the incident being divulged further. Alternatively, a complainant may request that no investigation into a particular incident be conducted or that an incident not be reported to outside law enforcement.

In all such cases, the Title IX Coordinator will weigh the complainant’s requests against the college’s obligation to provide a safe, non-discriminatory environment for all students, employees and visitors, including the complainant. A decision to maintain confidentiality does not mean that confidentiality can be absolutely guaranteed in all circumstances, but only that all efforts will be undertaken to keep information confidential consistent with law. Notwithstanding the decision of the Title IX Coordinator regarding the scope of any investigation, the college will provide the complainant with ongoing assistance and support, including, where appropriate, the interim and supportive measures set forth in Section VII of this policy.

If the Title IX Coordinator determines that she/he will maintain confidentiality as requested by the complainant, the college will take all reasonable steps to investigate the incident consistent with the request for confidentiality. However, a college’s ability to meaningfully investigate the incident and pursue disciplinary action may be limited by such a request.

In any event, the college is required to abide by any laws mandating disclosure, such as the Jeanne Clery Act and New York’s Campus Safety Act. However, notification under the Jeanne Clery Act is done without divulging the complaint’s identity, and notification of sexual violence under the New York Campus Safety Act is not required and will not be done if the complainant requests confidentiality.

If the Title IX Coordinator determines that the college must report the incident to outside law enforcement, the college will cooperate with any criminal investigation, which may include providing the outside law enforcement agency with any evidence in its possession relating to the incident.

D. Action by Bystanders and Other Community Members
While those employees designated as “responsible” employees are required reporters as set forth in Section VI below, CUNY encourages all other community members, including faculty, students and visitors, to take reasonable and prudent actions to prevent or stop an act of sexual harassment, gender-based harassment or sexual violence that they may witness. Although these actions will depend on the circumstances, they include direct intervention, calling law enforcement, or seeking assistance from a person in authority.

In addition, CUNY encourages all community members to report an incident of sexual harassment, gender-based harassment or sexual violence that they observe or become aware of to the Title IX Coordinator, and/or the offices of Public Safety and the Vice President of Students Affairs and/or Dean of Students at their college. Community members who take action in accordance with this paragraph will be supported by the college, and anyone who retaliates against them will be subject to disciplinary charges.

E. Amnesty for Drug and Alcohol Use
CUNY strongly encourages students to report instances of sexual harassment, gender-based harassment or sexual violence as soon as possible, even if those reporting or the alleged victim may have engaged in the inappropriate or unlawful use of alcohol or drugs. Therefore, a student who reports or experiences sexual harassment, gender-based harassment or sexual violence will not be disciplined by the college for any violation of CUNY’s Policy Against Drugs and Alcohol in connection with the reported incident, subject to the conditions in CUNY’s Medical Amnesty/Good Samaritan policy.

F. Reporting Suspected Child Abuse
Certain members of the CUNY community who interact with, supervise, chaperone, or otherwise oversee minors in programs or activities at CUNY or sponsored by CUNY are required to report immediately to the New York State Maltreatment Hotline if they have reasonable cause to suspect abuse or maltreatment of individuals under the age of 18. Information regarding mandated child abuse reporting is available on the Office of the General Counsel web page. If anyone other than New York State mandated reporters has reasonable cause to believe that a minor is being or has been abused or maltreated on campus, she/he should notify either the Title IX Coordinator or Director of Public Safety. If any CUNY community member witnesses child abuse while it is happening, she/he should immediately call 911.

G. Reporting Retaliation
An individual may file a complaint with the Title IX Coordinator if she/he has been retaliated against for reporting sexual harassment, gender-based harassment or sexual violence, assisting someone making such a report, or participating in any manner in an investigation or resolution of a sexual harassment, gender-based harassment or sexual violence complaint. All retaliation complaints will be investigated in accordance with the investigation procedures set forth in Section VIII of this policy, and individuals who are found to have engaged in retaliation will be subject to disciplinary action.

VI. Reporting/Confidentiality Obligations of College and University Employees
An individual who speaks to a college or CUNY employee about sexual harassment, gender-based harassment or sexual violence should be aware that employees fall into three categories: (1) “confidential” employees, who have an obligation to maintain a complainant's confidentiality regarding the incident(s); (2) "responsible" employees, who are required to report the incident(s) to the Title IX Coordinator; and (3) all other employees, who are strongly encouraged but not required to report the incident(s).

A. Confidential Employees

(i) For Students. Students at CUNY who wish to speak to someone who will keep all of the communications strictly confidential should speak to one of the following:

- Counselor or other staff member at their college counseling center;
- Nurse, nurse practitioner or other staff member in the college health office;
- Pastoral counselor (i.e., counselor who is also a religious leader) if one is available at their college; or
- Staff member in a women’s or men’s center, if one exists at their college.

The above individuals will not report any information about an incident to the college's Title IX Coordinator or other college employees without the student's permission. The only exception is in the case where there is an imminent threat to the complainant or any other person.

A student who speaks solely to a “confidential” employee is advised that, if the student wants to maintain confidentiality, the college may be unable to conduct an investigation into the particular incident or pursue disciplinary action against the alleged perpetrator. However, these professionals will assist the student in receiving other necessary support. A student who first requests confidentiality may later decide to file a complaint with the college or report the incident to local law enforcement and thus have the incident investigated.

(ii) For Employees. Although there is no one directly employed by CUNY to whom CUNY employees can speak on a confidential basis regarding sexual harassment, gender-based harassment or sexual violence, free confidential support services are available through CUNY's Work/Life Program, which is administered by an outside company. Confidential community counseling resources are also available throughout New York City:

B. “Responsible” Employees

“Responsible” employees have a duty to report incidents of sexual harassment, gender-based harassment or sexual violence, including all relevant details, to the Title IX Coordinator. Such employees are not permitted under any circumstances to maintain a complainant's confidentiality. To the extent possible, information reported to responsible employees will be shared only with the Title IX Coordinator, the “responsible” employee’s supervisor, and other people responsible for handling the college’s response to the report.

Before a complainant reveals any information to a responsible employee, the employee shall advise the complainant of the employee’s reporting obligations—and if the complainant wants to maintain confidentiality, direct the complainant to confidential resources.

CUNY has designated the following individuals as “responsible” employees:

(i) Title IX Coordinator and her/his staff
(ii) Office of Public Safety employees (all)
(iii) Vice President for Student Affairs and Dean of Students and all staff housed in those offices
(iv) Residence Life staff in CUNY owned or operated housing, including Resident Assistants (all)
(v) College President, Vice Presidents and Deans
(vi) Athletics Staff (all)
(vii) Department Chairpersons/Executive Officers
(viii) Human Resources staff (all)
(ix) University Office of the General Counsel employees (all)
(x) College/unit attorney and her/his staff
(xi) College/unit labor designee and her/his staff
(xii) Faculty members at times when they are leading off-campus trips
(xiii) Faculty or staff advisors to student groups
(xiv) Employees who are Managers (all)
(xv) SEEK/College Discovery staff (all)

C. All Other Employees
Employees other than those identified in subsections “A” and “B” above are permitted but not required to report any possible sexual harassment, gender-based harassment or sexual violence; however, they are encouraged by CUNY to make such a report.

It is important to emphasize that faculty members other than those specifically identified in subsection “B” above have not been designated as “responsible” employees and do not have an obligation to report the matter to the Title IX Coordinator, although they are encouraged to do so.

VII. Interim and Supportive Measures
The college will take immediate steps to protect the complainant and other affected parties, as well as the college community at large, following an allegation of sexual harassment, gender-based harassment or sexual violence. In general, when taking such interim and supportive measures, the college will seek to minimize the burden on the complainant.

Interim and supportive measures may include, among other things:
(i) Making necessary changes to academic programs, including a change in class schedule, making appropriate accommodations to permit the complainant to take an incomplete or drop a course or courses without penalty, permitting the complainant to attend a class via skype or other alternative means where appropriate, providing an academic tutor, or extending deadlines for assignments;
(ii) Making necessary changes to residential housing situations or providing assistance in finding alternate housing;
(iii) Changing an employee’s work assignment or schedule;
(iv) Providing the complainant with an escort to and from class or campus work location;
(v) Arranging appropriate transportation services to ensure safety;
(vi) Prohibiting contact between the complainant and the respondent (“no contact” orders);
(vii) Offering counseling services to the complainant, to the respondent, and, where appropriate, to witnesses, through the college Counseling Center or other appropriate college office, or a referral to an off-campus agency;
(viii) Providing the complainant assistance in obtaining medical and other services, including access to rape crisis centers;
(ix) Providing the complainant assistance with filing a criminal complaint and seeking an order of protection;
(x) Enforcing an order of protection;
(xi) Addressing situations in which it appears that a complainant’s academic progress is affected by the alleged incident;
(xii) In exceptional circumstances, seeking an emergency suspension of a student or an employee under applicable CUNY By laws, rules, policies and collective bargaining agreements.

VIII. Investigating Complaints of Sexual Harassment, Gender-Based Harassment or Sexual Violence
The college will conduct an investigation when it becomes aware, from any source (including third-parties not connected to the college or university), that sexual harassment, gender-based harassment or sexual violence may have been committed against a student, employee or visitor, unless the complainant has requested that the college refrain from such an investigation and the college has determined that it may do so.

A. The Investigation
The college Title IX Coordinator is responsible for conducting the investigation in a prompt, thorough, and impartial manner. The college Title IX Coordinator shall inform the respondent that an investigation is being commenced and shall inform the respondent of the allegations of the complainant. If there is a written complaint, the respondent shall be provided with a copy of the complaint unless circumstances warrant otherwise. The Title IX Coordinator shall coordinate investigative efforts with other college offices, and may designate another trained individual to conduct all or part of the investigation. A respondent employee who is covered by a collective bargaining agreement may consult with and have a union representative present at any interview conducted as part of such investigation.

The college Title IX Coordinator shall take prompt and effective steps reasonably calculated to end any sexual harassment, gender-based harassment or sexual violence, including: (i) taking interim measures; (ii) preventing retaliation; (iii) providing the complainant and the respondent with periodic status updates of the investigation and notice of outcome of the investigation; (iv) informing the complainant of her/his right to file a criminal complaint; (v) coordinating with law enforcement agencies, as appropriate, after consultation with Public Safety; (vi) maintaining all documents of the investigation; and (vii) drafting a report of findings, which is to be submitted to the College President.

B. Conflicts
If any administrator designated by this policy to participate in the investigation or resolution of a complaint (including but not limited to the Title IX Coordinator) is the respondent, the College President will appoint another college administrator to perform such person’s duties under this policy. If the President is the respondent, the investigation will be handled by the University Title IX Coordinator or her/his designee.

C. Mediation
While mediation is not permitted in cases where sexual violence is alleged, it may be appropriate where sexual harassment or gender-based harassment allegations have been made by a student or employee but there is no allegation of sexual violence. Mediation is a process whereby the parties can participate in a search for fair and workable solutions. Mediation requires the consent of both the complainant and the respondent, but does not require the complainant and respondent to meet face-to-face. Either party, however, has the right to end the mediation at any time and proceed with the investigation process. A respondent who is covered by a collective bargaining agreement may consult with and have a union representative present at any mediation session.

D. Timing
The college shall make every reasonable effort to ensure that the investigation and resolution of a complaint are carried out as timely and efficiently as possible.
However, the college may need to delay the fact-finding portion of its investigation during the evidence-gathering phase of a law enforcement investigation. While some complaints may require extensive investigation, whenever possible, the investigation of complaints should be completed within sixty (60) calendar days of the receipt of the complaint. If there is a delay in completing the investigation, the Title IX Coordinator shall notify the complainant and the respondent in writing.

E. Report of Findings
Following the completion of the investigation, the Title IX Coordinator shall report her/his findings to the College President in writing. Following such report, the College President shall review the complaint investigation report and authorize such action as she/he deems necessary to address the issues raised by the findings. In the event the complainant or the respondent is a student, the report shall also be sent to the Chief Student Affairs Officer. A copy of the report shall be maintained in the files of the Title IX Coordinator.

F. Disciplinary Action
Following an investigation, the College President may recommend that disciplinary action be commenced against the respondent student or employee.

(i) Discipline against students. In cases where a student is accused of a violation of this policy, including retaliation, the matter shall be referred to the college’s Office of Student Affairs and action shall be taken in accordance with Article XV of the CUNY Bylaws, which contains the student disciplinary process at CUNY. Under the student disciplinary process, complainants have the same right as respondents to receive notice of the charges, to attend and participate fully in a disciplinary hearing, to appear through a representative of their choice, including an attorney, to receive notice of the decision of the faculty-student disciplinary committee, and to appeal. Penalties for students instituted after a hearing before the faculty-student disciplinary committee range from a warning to suspension or expulsion from the University.

(ii) Discipline against employees. In cases where an employee is accused of a violation of this policy, including retaliation, the matter shall be referred for disciplinary action in accordance with the applicable CUNY policies, rules and collective bargaining agreements. Penalties for employees include reprimand, suspension or termination of employment following applicable disciplinary procedures. For many respondent employees, these procedures may include a hearing before a non-CUNY fact-finder, as required by collective bargaining agreements.

(iii) Action against visitors. In cases where the person accused of sexual harassment, gender-based harassment or sexual violence is neither a CUNY student nor a CUNY employee, the college’s ability to take action against the accused is extremely limited. However, the college shall take all appropriate actions within its control, such as restricting the visitor’s access to campus. In addition, the matter shall be referred to local law enforcement for legal action where appropriate.

(iv) No disciplinary action. In cases where a determination is made not to bring disciplinary action, the Title IX Coordinator shall inform the complainant and the respondent of that decision contemporaneously, in writing, and shall offer counseling or other support services to both the complainant and the respondent.

G. False and Malicious Allegations
Members of the CUNY community who make false and malicious complaints of sexual harassment, gender-based harassment or sexual violence, as opposed to complaints which, even if erroneous, are made in good faith, may be subject to disciplinary action.

H. Relationship of CUNY’s Investigation to the Actions of Outside Law Enforcement
In cases where the complainant files a complaint with outside law enforcement authorities as well as with the college, the college shall determine what actions to take based on its own investigation. The college may coordinate with outside law enforcement authorities in order to avoid interfering with their activities and, where possible, to obtain information regarding their investigation. Neither a law enforcement determination whether to prosecute a respondent, nor the outcome of any criminal prosecution, is dispositive of whether the respondent has committed a violation of this policy.

I. Filing External Complaints
Complainants have the right at any time to file complaints with the Office for Civil Rights (“OCR”) of the U.S. Department of Education, alleging violations of Title IX, and to file complaints with other appropriate agencies alleging violations of other federal, state or local laws. Contact information for OCR and other relevant agencies is set forth on the CUNY Title IX web page.

IX. College Obligations under this Policy
In addition to addressing possible violations of this policy, colleges/units of CUNY have the following obligations:

A. Dissemination of Policies, Procedures and Notices
The college Title IX Coordinator, in coordination with the Office of Student Affairs, Office of Public Safety, Human Resources Department and other appropriate offices, is responsible for the wide dissemination of the following on her/his campus: (i) this Policy; (ii) CUNY’s Notice of Non-Discrimination; (iii) the Title IX Coordinator’s name, phone number, office location, and email address; and (iv) contact information for the campus Public Safety Office. Such dissemination shall include posting the documents and information on the college website and including it in any student or faculty handbooks and in residence life materials. The CUNY offices of Student Affairs, Human Resources Management and Legal Affairs shall assist in such training and educational programming.

B. Training and Educational Programming
The college Title IX Coordinator, in coordination with other applicable offices, is responsible for training all employees who are required to report incidents of sexual harassment, gender-based harassment or sexual violence under this policy, for ensuring that designated offices are offering and administering the appropriate educational programming to all incoming and transfer students, residence hall students, athletes, fraternity/sorority groups, student leaders, and/or any other student groups which the college determines could benefit from education in the area of sexual harassment, gender-based harassment and sexual violence, and ensuring that designated offices promote awareness and prevention of sexual harassment, gender-based harassment and sexual violence among all students and employees.

C. Assessing Campus Attitudes
The college’s Vice President for Student Affairs, Vice President responsible for human resources, Title IX Coordinator and/or such employees designated by the college President, in coordination with other applicable offices, are responsible for obtaining current information regarding student experiences with sexual harassment, gender-based harassment and sexual violence. Any survey or assessment instrument shall be structured to be in compliance with any requirements set forth in applicable law and shall be reviewed and approved in advance by the University Title IX Coordinator.

D. Dating, Domestic and Intimate Partner Violence
As noted above, CUNY’s Domestic Violence in the Workplace policy provides that colleges shall assist employees who are victims of dating, domestic or intimate partner violence that affects their employment. Similarly, colleges shall assist students who are the victims of dating, domestic or intimate partner violence, including referring them to resources and taking other appropriate supportive measures.

In addition, if a student or employee makes a complaint of dating, domestic or intimate partner violence and the alleged perpetrator is a CUNY student or employee, the college shall investigate the matter if the alleged conduct may constitute a violation of this policy, and take appropriate action based on such investigation, which may include disciplinary action.

X. Rules Regarding Intimate Relationships
A. Relationships between Faculty or Employees and Students
Amorous, dating or sexual activity or relationships (“intimate relationships”), even when apparently consensual, are inappropriate when they occur between a faculty member or employee and any student for whom he or she has a professional responsibility. Those relationships are inappropriate because of the unequal power dynamic between students and faculty members and between students and employees who advise or evaluate them, such as athletic coaches or workplace supervisors. Such relationships necessarily involve issues of student vulnerability and have the potential for coercion. In addition, conflicts of interest or perceived conflicts of interest may arise when a faculty member or employee is required to evaluate the work or make personnel or academic decisions with respect to a student with whom he or she is having an intimate relationship. Finally, if the relationship ends in a way that is not amicable, the relationship may lead to charges of and possible liability for sexual harassment.

Therefore, faculty members and other employees are prohibited from engaging in intimate relationships with students for whom they have a professional responsibility, including undergraduates, graduate and professional students and postdoctoral fellows.

For purposes of this section, professional responsibility for a student means responsibility over academic matters, including teaching, counseling, grading, advising for a formal project such as a thesis or research, evaluating, hiring, supervising, coaching, making decisions or recommendations that confer benefits such as admissions, registration, financial aid, other awards, remuneration, or fellowships, or performing any other function that might affect teaching, research, or other academic opportunities.

B. Relationships between Supervisors and Employees
Many of the concerns about intimate relationships between faculty members or employees and students also apply to relationships between supervisors and employees they supervise. Those relationships therefore are strongly discouraged. Supervisors shall disclose any such relationships to their supervisors in order to avoid or mitigate conflicts of interest in connection with the supervision and evaluation of the employees with whom they have an intimate relationship. Mitigation may involve the transfer of either the supervisor or employee, reassigning the responsibility to evaluate the employee to a different supervisor, or other appropriate action.
For purposes of this section, supervising an employee means supervising in an employment setting, including hiring, evaluating, assigning work, or making decisions or recommendations that confer benefits such as promotions, raises or other remuneration, or performing any other function that might affect employment opportunities.

XI. Definitions of Terms in this Policy

A. Sexual harassment is unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature, including but not limited to unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal, nonverbal, graphic and electronic communications or physical conduct of a sexual nature when:
(i) submission to or rejection of such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a condition of an individual's employment or academic standing or is used as the basis for employment decisions or for academic evaluation, grades, or advancement (quid pro quo); or
(ii) such conduct is sufficiently serious that it alters the conditions of, or has the effect of substantially interfering with, an individual's educational or work experience by creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive environment (hostile environment). The effect will be evaluated based on the perspective of a reasonable person in the position of a complainant.

Conduct is considered “unwelcome” if the individual did not request or invite it and considered the conduct to be undesirable or offensive. While it is not possible to list all circumstances that might constitute sexual harassment, the following are some examples of conduct that might constitute sexual harassment depending on the totality of the circumstances:
(i) Inappropriate or unwelcome physical contact or suggestive body language, such as touching, groping, patting, pinching, hugging, kissing, or brushing against an individual's body;
(ii) Verbal abuse or offensive comments of a sexual nature, including sexual slurs, persistent or pervasive sexually explicit statements, questions, jokes or anecdotes, degrading words regarding sexuality or gender, suggestive or obscene letters, notes, or invitations;
(iii) Visual displays or distribution of sexually explicit drawings, pictures, or written materials; or
(iv) Undue and unwanted attention, such as repeated inappropriate flirting, staring, or making sexually suggestive gestures.

For purposes of this policy, sexual harassment also includes acts that violate an individual's right to privacy in connection with her/his body and/or sexual activity such as:
(i) Recording images (e.g. video, photograph) or audio of another person's sexual activity, intimate body parts, or nakedness without that person's consent;
(ii) Disseminating images (e.g. video, photograph) or audio of another person's sexual activity, intimate body parts, or nakedness, if the individual distributing the images or audio knows or should have known that the person depicted in the images or audio did not consent to such disclosure;
(iii) Viewing another person's sexual activity, intimate body parts, or nakedness in a place where that person would have a reasonable expectation of privacy, without that person's consent.
B. Gender-based harassment is unwelcome conduct of a nonsexual nature based on an individual’s actual or perceived sex, including conduct based on gender identity, gender expression, and nonconformity with gender stereotypes that is sufficiently serious that it alters the conditions of, or has the effect of substantially interfering with an individual’s educational or work experience by creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive environment (hostile environment). The effect will be evaluated based on the perspective of a reasonable person in the position of the complainant. An example of gender-based harassment would be persistent mocking or disparagement of a person based on a perceived lack of stereotypical masculinity or femininity.

C. Sexual violence is an umbrella term that includes: sexual assault, such as rape/attempted rape, criminal sexual act, forcible touching and sexual abuse, as well as dating, domestic and intimate partner violence. Stalking, while not necessarily sexual in nature, can be a form of sexual violence depending upon the circumstances.

(i) Sexual assault is any form of sexual contact (i.e., any touching of the sexual or other intimate parts of a person for the purpose of gratifying sexual desire of either party) that occurs without consent and/or through the use of force, threat of force, intimidation, or coercion. Examples of sexual assault include:

(a) Rape and attempted rape is engaging or attempting to engage in sexual intercourse with another person: (a) without such person’s consent; (b) where such person is incapable of giving consent by reason of being mentally disabled, mentally incapacitated or physically helpless; or (c) where such person is less than seventeen years old. Sexual intercourse includes vaginal or anal penetration, however slight.

(b) Criminal sexual act is engaging in oral or anal sexual conduct with another person without such person’s consent.

(c) Forcible touching is intentionally touching the sexual or other intimate parts of another person without the latter’s consent for the purpose of degrading or abusing such person; or for the purpose of gratifying the actor’s sexual desire.

(d) Sexual abuse is subjecting another person to sexual contact without the latter’s consent.

(ii) Stalking is intentionally engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that:
(1) is likely to cause reasonable fear of material harm to the physical health, safety or property of such person, a member of such person’s immediate family or a third party with whom such person is acquainted; or

(2) causes material harm to the mental or emotional health of such person, where such conduct consists of following, telephoning or initiating communication or contact with such person, a member of such person’s immediate family or a third party with whom such person is acquainted; or

(3) is likely to cause such person to reasonably fear that her/his employment, business or career is threatened, where such conduct consists of appearing, telephoning or initiating communication or contact at such person’s place of employment or business, and the actor was previously clearly informed to cease that conduct.

(ii) Dating, domestic and intimate partner violence is a pattern of coercive behavior that can include physical, psychological, sexual, economic and emotional abuse, perpetrated by one person against an intimate partner. Such violence may occur in all kinds of intimate relationships, including married couples, people who are dating, couples who live together, people with children in common, same-sex partners, and people who were formerly in a relationship with the person abusing them.

D. Consent is a knowing, informed, voluntary and mutual decision to engage in agreed upon sexual activity. Consent can be given by words or actions, as long as those words or actions create clear permission regarding willingness to engage in the sexual activity. Silence or failure to resist does not, in and of itself, demonstrate consent. The definition of consent does not vary based upon a participant’s sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or gender expression. Consent can be withdrawn at any time. Past consent to sexual activity between individuals does not constitute consent to subsequent sexual activity between those individuals, and consent to one form of sexual activity does not necessarily imply consent to other forms of sexual activity. Whether one party to sexual activity is in a position of authority or influence over the other party is a relevant factor in determining consent.

In order to give consent, one must be of legal age (17 years or older) and not mentally or physically incapacitated, or physically helpless, unconscious or asleep. Depending on the degree of intoxication, someone who is under the influence of alcohol, drugs or other intoxicants may be incapacitated and therefore unable to consent. Consent is not valid if it is the result of coercion, intimidation, force or threat of harm.

E. Complainant refers to the individual who alleges that she/he has been the subject of sexual harassment, gender-based harassment or sexual violence, and can be a CUNY student, employee (including all full-time and part-time faculty and staff), or visitor. Under this policy, the alleged incident(s) may have been brought to the college’s attention by someone other than the complainant.

F. Visitor is an individual who is present at a CUNY campus or unit but is not a student or an employee.

G. Respondent refers to the individual who is alleged to have committed sexual harassment, gender-based harassment or sexual violence against a CUNY student, employee, or visitor.

H. Complaint is an allegation of sexual harassment, gender-based harassment or sexual violence made under this policy.

I. Retaliation is adverse treatment of an individual as a result of that individual’s reporting sexual harassment, gender-based harassment or sexual violence, assisting someone with a report of sexual harassment, gender-based harassment or sexual violence, or participating in any manner in an investigation or resolution of a sexual harassment, gender-based harassment or sexual violence report. Adverse treatment includes threats, intimidation and reprisals by either a complainant or respondent or by others such as friends or relatives of either a complainant or respondent.

J. Managers are employees who have the authority to either (a) make tangible employment decisions with regard to other employees, including the authority to hire, fire, promote, compensate or assign significantly different responsibilities; or (b) make recommendations on tangible employment decisions that are given particular weight. Managers include vice presidents, deans, directors, or other persons with managerial responsibility, including, for purposes of this policy, department chairpersons and executive officers.
The City of New York Student Sexual Misconduct Complainants' Bill of Rights

- To file a criminal complaint and to seek an Order of Protection, with the assistance of the college, if they so choose.
- To make a formal complaint at the campus as the first step in the disciplinary process against the respondent(s).
- To have their complaint investigated in a prompt, impartial and thorough manner by individuals who have received appropriate training in conducting investigations and the issues related to sexual harassment and sexual violence.
- To report incidents of sexual harassment or sexual violence that they experience while under the influence of alcohol or drugs without receiving discipline for their alcohol or drug use, if they agree to complete appropriate education or treatment as the circumstances warrant.
- To have the same opportunity as the respondent(s) to participate in a student disciplinary hearing before a faculty-student disciplinary committee, including the right to be present, to be represented by a person of their choice, including an attorney, to present evidence, call witnesses, cross-examine witnesses, receive notice of the outcome of the hearing, and to appeal from the decision.

Student Complaint Procedure of The City University of New York
EXPLANATION: Although the University and its Colleges have a variety of procedures for dealing with student related issues, those procedures generally have not covered student complaints about faculty conduct in the classroom or other formal academic settings. The University respects the academic freedom of the faculty and will not interfere with it as it relates to the content or style of teaching activities. At the same time, however, the University recognizes its responsibility to establish procedures for addressing student complaints about faculty conduct that is not protected by academic freedom and not addressed in other procedures. The proposed procedures will accomplish this goal.

Procedures for handling student complaints about faculty conduct in academic settings:
I. Introduction. The University and its Colleges have a variety of procedures for dealing with student-related issues, including grade appeals, academic integrity violations, student discipline, disclosure of student records, student elections, sexual harassment complaints, disability accommodations, and discrimination. One area not generally covered by other procedures concerns student complaints about faculty conduct in the classroom or other formal academic settings. The University respects the academic freedom of the faculty and will not interfere with it as it relates to the content or style of teaching activities. Indeed, academic freedom is and should be of paramount importance. At the same time the University recognizes its responsibility to provide students with a procedure for addressing complaints about faculty treatment of students that are not protected by academic freedom and are not covered by other procedures. Examples might include incompetent or inefficient service, neglect of duty, physical or mental incapacity and conduct unbecoming a member of the staff.

II. Determination of Appropriate Procedure. If students have any question about the applicable procedure to follow for a particular complaint, they should consult with the chief student affairs officer. In particular, the chief student affairs officer should advise a student if some other procedure is applicable to the type of complaint the student has.

III. Informal Resolution. Students are encouraged to attempt to resolve complaints informally with the faculty member or to seek the assistance of the department chairperson or campus ombudsman to facilitate informal resolution.

IV. Formal Complaint. If the student does not pursue informal resolution, or if informal resolution is unsuccessful, the student may file a written complaint with the department chairperson or, if the chairperson is the subject of the complaint, with the academic dean or a senior faculty member designated by the college president. (This person will be referred to below as the Fact Finder.). Only students in a faculty member's class or present in another academic setting where the alleged conduct occurred may file complaints against that faculty member.

A. The complaint shall be filed within 30 calendar days of the alleged conduct unless there is good cause shown for delay, including but not limited to delay caused by an attempt at informal resolution. The complaint shall be as specific as possible in describing the conduct complained of.

B. The Fact Finder shall promptly send a copy to the faculty member about whom the complaint is made, along with a letter stating that the filing of the complaint does not imply that any wrongdoing has occurred and that a faculty member must not retaliate in any way against a student for having made a complaint. If either the student or the faculty member has reason to believe that the department chairperson may be biased or otherwise unable to deal with the complaint in a fair and objective manner, he or she may submit to the academic dean or the senior faculty member designated by the college president a written request stating the reasons for that belief; if the request appears to have merit, that person may, in his or her sole discretion, replace the department chairperson as the Fact Finder. The chairperson may also submit a written request for recusal for good cause to the academic dean or senior faculty member designated by the college president to review such requests. If a recusal request is granted, a different department chairperson shall conduct the investigation, or, if no other chairperson is available, an administrator designated by the college president shall serve in the chairperson's stead. Further, the college president may re-assign investigations as necessary, including but not limited to situations in which a Fact Finder has not completed an investigation in a timely manner. In addition, during any time that no department chairperson is available to investigate a complaint, the college president may assign an administrator to investigate.

C. The Fact Finder shall meet with the complaining student and faculty member, either separately or together, to discuss the complaint and to try to resolve it. The Fact Finder may seek the assistance of the campus ombudsman or other appropriate person to facilitate informal resolution.
D. If resolution is not possible, and the Fact Finder concludes that the facts alleged by the student, taken as true and viewed in the light most favorable to the student, establish that the conduct complained of is clearly protected by academic freedom, he or she shall issue a written report dismissing the complaint and setting forth the reasons for dismissal and send a copy to the complaining student, the faculty member, the chief academic officer and the chief student affairs officer. Otherwise, the Fact Finder shall conduct an investigation. The Fact Finder shall separately interview the complaining student, the faculty member and other persons with relevant knowledge and information and shall also consult with the chief student affairs officer and, if appropriate, the college ombudsman. The Fact Finder shall not reveal the identity of the complaining student and the faculty member to others except to the extent necessary to conduct the investigation. If the Fact Finder believes it would be helpful, he or she may meet again with the student and faculty member after completing the investigation in an effort to resolve the matter. The complaining student and the faculty member shall have the right to have a representative (including a union representative, student government representative or attorney) present during the initial meeting, the interview and any post-investigation meeting.

E. In cases where there is strong preliminary evidence that a student’s complaint is meritorious and that the student may suffer immediate and irreparable harm, the Fact Finder may provide appropriate interim relief to the complaining student pending the completion of the investigation. The affected faculty member may appeal such interim relief to the chief academic officer.

F. At the end of the investigation, the Fact Finder shall issue a written report setting forth his or her findings and recommendations, with particular focus on whether the conduct in question is protected by academic freedom, and send a copy to the complaining student, the faculty member, the chief academic officer and the chief student affairs officer. In ordinary cases, it is expected that the investigation and written report should be completed within 30 calendar days of the date the complaint was filed.

V. Appeals Procedure. If either the student or the faculty member is not satisfied with the report of the Fact Finder, the student or faculty member may file a written appeal to the chief academic officer within 10 calendar days of receiving the report, which time period may be extended for good cause shown. The chief academic officer shall convene and serve as the chairperson of an Appeals Committee, which shall also include the chief student affairs officer, two faculty members elected annually by the faculty council or senate and one student elected annually by the student senate. The Appeals Committee shall review the findings and recommendations of the report, with particular focus on whether the conduct in question is protected by academic freedom. The Appeals Committee shall not conduct a new factual investigation or overturn any factual findings contained in the report unless they are clearly erroneous. If the Appeals Committee decides to reverse the Fact Finder in a case where there has not been an investigation because the Fact Finder erroneously found that the alleged conduct was protected by academic freedom, it may remand to the Fact Finder for further proceedings. The committee shall issue a written decision within 20 calendar days of receiving the appeal. A copy of the decision shall be sent to the student, the faculty member, the department chairperson and the president.

VI. Subsequent Action. Following the completion of these procedures, the appropriate college official shall decide the appropriate action, if any, to take. For example, the department chairperson may decide to place a report in the faculty member’s personnel file or the president may bring disciplinary charges against the faculty member. Disciplinary charges may also be brought in extremely serious cases even though the college has not completed the entire investigative process described above; in that case, the bringing of disciplinary charges shall automatically suspend that process. Any action taken by a college, whether interim or final, must comply with the bylaws of the University and the collective bargaining agreement between the University and the Professional Staff Congress.

VII. Campus Implementation. Each campus shall implement these procedures and shall distribute them widely to administrators, faculty members and students and post them on the college website.

Section 15.3. Complaint Procedures:
a. Any charge, accusation, or allegation which is to be presented against a student, and, which if proved, may subject a student to disciplinary action, must be submitted in writing in complete detail to the office of the chief student affairs officer promptly by the individual, organization or department making the charge.

b. The chief student affairs officer of the college or his or her designee will conduct a preliminary investigation in order to determine whether disciplinary charges should be preferred. The chief student affairs officer or his or her designee will advise the student of the allegation against him or her, consult with other parties who may be involved or who have information regarding the incident, and review other relevant evidence. Following this preliminary investigation, which shall be concluded within thirty (30) calendar days of the filing of the complaint, the chief student affairs officer or designee shall take one of the following actions:
   (i) Dismiss the matter if there is no basis for the allegation(s) or the allegation(s) does not warrant disciplinary actions. The individuals involved shall be notified that the complaint has been dismissed;
   (ii) Refer the matter to mediation; or
   (iii) Prefer formal disciplinary charges.

c. In the event that a student withdraws from the college after a charge, accusation or allegation against the student has been made, and the college prefers formal disciplinary charges, the withdrawn student is required to participate in the disciplinary hearing or otherwise to resolve the pending charges and will be barred from attending any other unit of the university until a decision on the charges is made or the charges are otherwise resolved. If the withdrawn student fails to so participate in the disciplinary process without good cause, the college may proceed with the disciplinary hearing in absentia and any decision and sanction will be binding.

Mediation Conference:
d. The mediation conference shall be conducted by a qualified staff or faculty member designated by the chief student affairs officer. The following procedures shall be in effect at this conference:
   1. An effort will be made to resolve the matter by mutual agreement.
   2. If an agreement is reached, the faculty or staff member conducting the conference shall report his/her recommendation to the chief student affairs officer for approval and, if approved, the complainant shall be notified, and a written memorandum shall be created memorializing the resolution and any consequences for non-compliance.
3. If no agreement is reached, or if the student fails to appear, the faculty or staff member conducting the conference shall refer the matter back to the chief student affairs officer who may prefer disciplinary charges.

4. The faculty or staff member conducting the mediation conference is precluded from testifying in a college hearing regarding information received during the mediation conference.

Notice of Hearing and Charges:
e. Notice of the charge(s) and of the time and place of the hearing shall be personally delivered or sent by the chief student affairs officer of the college to the student at the address appearing on the records of the college, by certified or overnight mail and by regular mail and e-mail to students who have a college e-mail address. The chief student affairs officer is also encouraged to send the notice of charges to any other e-mail address that he or she may have for the student. The hearing shall be scheduled within a reasonable time following the filing of the charges or the mediation conference. Notice of at least five business days shall be given to the student in advance of the hearing unless the student consents to an earlier hearing.

f. The notice shall contain the following:
   1. A complete and itemized statement of the charge(s) being brought against the student including the rule, bylaw, or regulation he/she is charged with violating, and the possible penalties for such violation.
   2. A statement that the student has the following rights:
      (i) to present his/her side of the story;
      (ii) to present witnesses and evidence on his/her behalf;
      (iii) to cross-examine witnesses presenting evidence against the student;
      (iv) to remain silent without assumption of guilt; and
      (v) to be represented by legal counsel or an advisor at the student’s expense.
   3. A warning that anything the student says may be used against him/her at a non-college hearing.

Faculty-Student Disciplinary Committee Procedures:
g. The following procedures shall apply at the hearing before the faculty-student disciplinary committee:

1. The chairperson shall preside at the hearing. The chairperson shall inform the student of the charges, the hearing procedures, and his or her rights.

2. After informing the student of the charges, the hearing procedures, and his or her rights, the chairperson shall ask the student charged to respond. If the student admits the conduct charged, the student shall be given an opportunity to explain his/her actions before the committee and the college shall be given an opportunity to respond. If the student denies the conduct charged, the college shall present its case. At the conclusion of the college’s case, the student may move to dismiss the charges. If the motion is denied by the committee the student shall be given an opportunity to present his or her defense.

3. Prior to accepting testimony at the hearing, the chairperson shall rule on any motions questioning the impartiality of any committee member or the adequacy of the notice of the charge(s). Subsequent thereto, the chairperson may only rule on the sufficiency of the evidence and may exclude irrelevant, immaterial, or unduly repetitive evidence. However, if either party wishes to question the impartiality of a committee member on the basis of evidence, which was not previously available at the inception of the hearing, the chairperson may rule on such a motion. The chairperson shall exclude all persons who are to appear as witnesses, except the accused student.

4. The college shall make a record of each fact-finding hearing by some means such as a stenographic transcript, a tape recording, or the equivalent. A disciplined student is entitled upon request to a copy of such a record without cost.

5. The student is entitled to a closed hearing but has the right to request an open public hearing. However, the chairperson has the right to hold a closed hearing when an open public hearing would adversely affect and be disruptive of the committee's normal operations.

6. The college bears the burden of proving the charge(s) by a preponderance of the evidence.

7. The role of the faculty-student disciplinary committee is to listen to the testimony, ask questions of the witnesses, review the testimony and evidence presented at the hearing and the papers filed by the parties and render a determination as to guilt or innocence. In the event the student is found to have committed the conduct charged, the committee shall then determine the penalty to be imposed.

8. At the end of the presentations by both sides, the student may introduce additional records, such as character references. The college may introduce a copy of the student's previous disciplinary record, where applicable, provided the student was shown a copy of the record prior to the commencement of the hearing. The disciplinary record shall be submitted to the committee in a sealed envelope and shall not be opened until after the committee has made its findings of fact. In the event the student has been determined to have committed the conduct alleged in the charge or charges the records and documents introduced by the student and the college shall be opened and used by the committee for dispositional purposes, i.e., to determine an appropriate penalty if the charges are sustained.

9. The committee shall deliberate in closed session. The committee shall issue a written decision, which shall be based solely on the testimony and evidence presented at the hearing and the papers filed by the parties.

10. The student shall be sent a copy of the faculty-student disciplinary committee's decision within five days of the conclusion of the hearing, by regular mail and e-mail for students who have a college e-mail address. The chief student affairs officer is also encouraged to send the decision to any other e-mail address that he or she may have for the student. The decision shall be final subject to the student's right of appeal.

11. Where a student is represented by legal counsel the president of the college or his or her designee may request that a lawyer from the general counsel's office appear at the hearing to present the college's case.

12. When a disciplinary hearing results in a penalty of dismissal or suspension for one term or more, the decision is a university-wide penalty and the student will be barred from admission to any other unit of the university while the penalty is being served.

13. Disciplinary penalties shall be placed on a student's transcript and shall remain there unless the committee's decision, the decision on any appeal under section 15.4 below, or a mediation agreement expressly indicates otherwise.

Section 15.4. Appeals.
An appeal from the decision of the faculty-student disciplinary committee may be made to the president who may confirm or decrease the penalty but not increase it. His/her decision shall be final except in the case of dismissals or suspension for one term or more. An appeal from a decision of dismissal or suspension for one term or more may be made to the board committee on student affairs and special programs. Any appeal under this section shall be made in writing within fifteen days after the delivery of the decision appealed from. This requirement may be waived in a particular case for good cause by the president or board committees as the case may be. If the president is a party to the dispute, his/her functions with respect to an appeal shall be discharged by an official of the university to be appointed by the chancellor or his or her designee.

Section 15.5. Committee Structure.

a. Each faculty-student disciplinary committee shall consist of two faculty members and two student members and a chairperson, who shall be a faculty member. A quorum shall consist of the chair and any two members, one of whom must be a student. Hearings shall be scheduled promptly (including during the summers) at a convenient time and efforts shall be made to insure full student and faculty representation.

b. The president shall select in consultation with the head of the appropriate campus governance body or where the president is the head of the governance body, its executive committee, three (3) members of the instructional staff of that college to receive training and to serve in rotation as chair of the disciplinary committee. If none of the chairpersons appointed from the campus can serve, the president, at his/her discretion, may request that a chairperson be selected by lottery from the entire group of chairpersons appointed by other colleges. The chairperson shall preside at all meetings of the faculty-student disciplinary committee and decide and make all rulings for the committee. He/she shall not be a voting member of the committee but shall vote in the event of a tie.

c. The faculty members shall be selected by lot from a panel of six elected biennially by the appropriate faculty body from among the persons having faculty rank or faculty status. The student members shall be selected by lot from a panel of six elected annually in an election in which all students registered at the college shall be eligible to vote. In the event that the student or faculty panel or both are not elected, or if more panel members are needed, the president shall have the duty to select the panel or panels which have not been elected. No individuals on the panel shall serve on the panel for more than two consecutive years.

d. In the event that the chairperson cannot continue, the president shall appoint another chairperson. In the event that a student or faculty seat becomes vacant and it is necessary to fill the seat to continue the hearing, the seat shall be filled from the respective faculty or student panel by lottery.

e. Persons who are to be participants in the hearings as witnesses or have been involved in preferring the charges or who may participate in the appeals procedures or any other person having a direct interest in the outcome of the hearing shall be disqualified from serving on the committee.

Section 15.6. Suspension or Dismissal.
The board reserves full power to dismiss or suspend a student, or suspend a student organization for conduct which impedes, obstructs, or interferes with the orderly and continuous administration and operation of any college, school, or unit of the university in the use of its facilities or in the achievement of its purposes as an educational institution.
The chancellor or his/her designee or a president or his/her designee may in emergency or extraordinary circumstances, temporarily suspend a student, or temporarily suspend the privileges of a student organization or group for cause, pending an early hearing as provided in bylaw section 15.3. to take place within not more than ten (10) business days. Prior to the commencement of a temporary suspension of a student, the college shall give such student oral or written notice of the charges against him/her and, if he/she denies them, the college shall forthwith give such student an informal oral explanation of the evidence supporting the charges and the student may present informally his/her explanation or theory of the matter. When a student’s presence poses a continuing danger to person or property or an ongoing threat of disrupting the academic process, notice and opportunity for denial and explanation may follow suspension, but shall be given as soon as feasible thereafter.

Section 15.7. The University Student Senate.
There shall be a university student senate responsible, subject to the board, for the formulation of university-wide student policy relating to the academic status, role, rights and freedoms of the student. The authority and duties of the university student senate shall not extend to areas of interest which fall exclusively within the domain of the student governments of the constituent units of the university. Consistent with the authority of the board of trustees in accordance with the education law and the bylaws of the board of trustees, the university student senate shall make its own bylaws providing for the election of its own officers, the establishment of its own rules and procedures, for its internal administration and for such other matters as is necessary for its existence. The university student senate shall have the full rights and responsibilities accorded student organizations as provided in these bylaws. The delegates and alternate delegates to the university student senate shall be elected by their respective constituencies, or by their student governments from the elected members of the respective student governments.

Section 15.8. College Governance Plans.
The provisions in a duly adopted college governance plan shall not be inconsistent with the provisions contained in this article.

Student Activity Fee
For full view of the Article XVI, go to www.cuny.edu
The student activity fee is the total of the fee for student government and other student activities. Student activity fees, including student government fees collected by a college of the university shall be deposited in a college central depository and, except where earmarked by the board, allocated by a college association budget committee subject to review by the college association as required in these bylaws.

Student Records Policy
Annually, Colleges inform students of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, (FERPA) as amended. The Office of the Registrar will disclose FERPA information by publishing a notice in the College Catalog, Registrar Website and in other appropriate locations. This annual notice shall prescribe the procedures whereby a student may make a formal request for non-disclosure of directory information, exercise the right to inspect and review education records, request an amendment of education records and obtain a copy of the College’s education records policy. The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) affords students certain rights with respect to their education records. See Section “6” below on your right to prevent the disclosure of directory information. The FERPA rights of students are:
1. The right to inspect and review your educational records.

   Students should submit to the registrar, dean, head of the academic department, or other appropriate official, written requests that identify the record(s) they wish to inspect. If the records are not maintained by the college official to whom the request was submitted, that official shall advise the student of the correct official to whom the request should be addressed. All requests shall be granted or denied in writing within 45 days of receipt. If the request is granted, you will be notified of the time and place where the records may be inspected. If the request is denied or not responded to within 45 days, you may appeal to the college’s FERPA appeals officer. Additional information regarding the appeal procedures will be provided to you if a request is denied. Schools are not required to provide copies of records unless, for reasons such as great distance, it is impossible for students to review the records. Schools may charge a fee for copies.

2. The right to request the amendment of the student’s education records that the student believes are inaccurate or misleading.

   You may ask the college to amend a record that you believe is inaccurate or misleading. You should write to the college official responsible for the record, clearly identify the part of the record you want changed, and specify why it is inaccurate or misleading. If the college decides not to amend the record as requested by you, the college will notify you of the decision and advise you of your right to a hearing before the college’s FERPA appeals officer regarding the request for amendment. Additional information regarding the hearing procedures will be provided to you when notified of your right to a hearing.

3. The right to consent to disclosure of personally identifiable information contained in your education records, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent. One exception which permits disclosure without consent is disclosure to college officials with legitimate educational interests. A college official is a person employed by the university in an administrative, supervisory, academic or research, or support staff position; a person or company with whom the University has contracted; a person serving on the Board of Trustees; or a student serving on an official committee, such as a disciplinary or grievance committee, or assisting another college official in performing his or her tasks. A college official has a legitimate educational interest if access is reasonably necessary in order to perform his/her instructional, research, administrative or other duties and responsibilities. Upon request, the college discloses education records without consent to officials of another college or school in which a student seeks or intends to enroll.

4. You may appeal the alleged denial of FERPA rights to the:
   General Counsel and Vice Chancellor for Legal Affairs
   The City University Of New York
   535 East 80th Street
   New York, NY 10021

5. The right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by the college to comply with the requirements of FERPA. The name and address of the office that administers FERPA are:
   Family Policy Compliance Office
   U.S. Department of Education
   400 Maryland Avenue, SW
   Washington, D.C. 20202-5920

6. The college will make the following “directory information” concerning current and former students available to those parties having a legitimate interest in the information: name, attendance dates (periods of enrollment), address, telephone number, date and place of birth, photograph, e-mail address, full or part-time status, enrollment status (undergraduate, graduate, etc.), level of education (credits) completed, major field of study, degree enrolled for, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, height and weight of athletic team members.

Tobacco Policy
To view the full policy on tobacco go to www.cuny.edu

The Board of Trustees of The City University of New York has approved an expanded tobacco policy that will make CUNY the largest smoke-free public university system in the United States. The policy prohibits the use of tobacco on all grounds and facilities under CUNY’s jurisdiction—indoor and outdoor—as well as tobacco industry promotions and marketing on campus properties, and tobacco industry sponsorship of athletic events and athletes.

The Board’s resolution updates and supersedes the University’s previous policy, which prohibited smoking inside all facilities, including vehicles operated by the University. The revised tobacco policy must be implemented University-wide no later than September 4, 2012.

The action was approved by the Board at its meeting on January 24, 2011.

Your Right to Know
