

2009-10 INCOME ADJUSTMENT DEPENDENT STUDENT WORKSHEET

Note: This form may not be submitted before July 1, 2009

STUDENT NAME: _____ SS#: _____

Check the one reason below that best describes your family's change of economic circumstances and provide the documentation specified below (or required by a Financial Aid Counselor). To be considered for an income adjustment, you must have already completed a 2009-10 FAFSA and received your Student Aid Report (SAR). You must then see a Financial Aid Counselor with your SAR, this worksheet and the required documentation.

- 1. A parent or student has had a significant loss of income in 2009 or 2010 due to a period of unemployment, a change of jobs, or going from full-time to part-time employment.
Documentation – 2008 tax returns; 2009-10 Verification Worksheet; letter of termination (or statement from parent/student indicating when employment terminated); 2009/2010 financial documents (last pay stub, unemployment benefit rate letter [and the NYS Unemployment Benefits Online Pay History, which is available at the NYS Department of Labor's Website <https://ui.labor.state.ny.us/> or, for non-NYS residents, the equivalent from your state], current public assistance budget, etc.).
- 2. A parent or student who earned money in 2008 has not been able to earn money in 2009 or 2010 because of a disability or natural disaster that occurred in 2008 or 2009.
Documentation – 2008 tax returns; 2009-10 Verification Worksheet; a statement from the student or parent's employer, insurance company, Worker's Compensation Board, or other disability agency indicating when employment terminated; in cases of a natural disaster, a statement explaining the nature of the disaster and the date employment terminated; 2009/2010 financial documents (disability or Worker's Compensation statements, etc.).
- 3. A parent or student who received unemployment compensation or some untaxed income or benefit in 2008 or 2009 has completely lost that income or benefit in 2009 or 2010. The untaxed income or benefit must be from a public or private agency, from a company or from a person because of a court order.
Documentation – 2008 tax returns; 2009-10 Verification Worksheet; a statement from the appropriate agency, company or person making the benefit payments indicating when the benefits terminated.
- 4. The student's parents have separated or divorced after the student has applied for Federal student aid.
Documentation – a copy of the divorce decree or a statement from the parent indicating the date of separation; 2008 tax returns and W-2 forms; 2009-10 Verification Worksheet; 2009/2010 financial documents for the remaining parent (current pay stubs, etc.).
- 5. A parent has died after the student has applied for Federal student aid.
Documentation – a copy of the death certificate for the parent; 2008 tax returns and W-2 forms; 2009-10 Verification Worksheet; 2009/2010 financial documents for the surviving parent (current pay stub; social security statements, etc.).
