Support Services at BMCC

BMCC Language Immersion for International Students (BLIIS) provides English reading and writing immersion for admitted students who have taken but not passed the CUNY Assessment Tests.

Peer Mentoring Programs connect successful continuing students with new students and those having academic difficulties.

Leadership and Experiential Learning enables students to develop critical thinking and collaborative learning skills while experiencing first-hand a segment of their planned career field.

Leadership Academy students gain leadership training through workshops, community engagement and networking opportunities.

Off-Campus Housing Resources are available through the BMCC Single Stop website www.bmcc.cuny.edu/singlestop
