Cornell University is an equal opportunity, affirmative action educator and employer.
Students interested in Applied Economics and Management, Biological Sciences, Biology & Society, Landscape Architecture will be considered competitive transfer applicants if their interests are appropriate and they meet GPA, course and profile requirements. Due to enrollment limitations, guaranteed transfer admission cannot be granted.

Students at (College) will be granted transfer to Cornell University’s College of Agriculture and Life Sciences and the opportunity to complete a Bachelor of Science Degree provided the following requirements are met:

1. All transfer course requirements are fulfilled for the student’s intended CALS major, outlined and updated at www.cals.cornell.edu/Transfer.cfm

2. A minimum 3.0 cumulative grade point average is earned and the student is making satisfactory progress in their final semester courses prior to transfer and has studied full time.

3. The student has satisfactorily completed the Cornell University Transfer Application, including recommendations, essay, College Official Report and provide mid semester grades.

4. The student is in good disciplinary standing at (College).

Applicants with less than the minimum cumulative grade point average, course withdrawals, incompletes, part time study or other factors will be considered on an individual basis.

A maximum of 60 credits can be transferred and credit is awarded upon review by the CALS Registrar once transfer admission is granted.

CALS does not award credit for college courses taught in high school. CALS awards AP credit based on exam scores. Refer to http://www.cals.cornell.edu/cals/current/registrar/current-students/non-cornell-credit.cfm for non-cornell credit policies.

This agreement becomes effective on January 1, 2010 and can be modified or discontinued by mutual consent as deemed necessary by either institution.
For list of required courses for transfer by CALS major see www.cals.cornell.edu
