The rules for citing books and articles are fairly clear, but the rules for citing movies, songs, and other recorded materials are bit more complicated. Here are the basic rules, though you may want to consult the MLA handbook as well.

AN INTERVIEW YOU HAVE CONDUCTED YOURSELF

A TELEVISION OR RADIO PROGRAM

A MOVIE

A SONG OR MUSIC RECORDING

A LIVE PERFORMANCE OF A PLAY, OPERA, DANCE, OR CONCERT

AN ADVERTISEMENT

A WORK OF VISUAL ART

A LECTURE, A SPEECH, AN ADDRESS, OR A READING

COMPUTER SOFTWARE OR VIDEO GAME

Works Cited

    Speech.

Mitchell, Elizabeth. Personal Interview. 27 May 2011.

