

David E. Jones

University Associate Director of Student Housing & Residence Life

Central Office of Student Affairs

City University of New York

David.jones@cuny.edu

646-664-8820

Student Housing & Residence Life at CUNY

- 9 residence halls at 9 campuses, consisting of 2,685 residents and 72 Resident Assistants
- Student Housing & Residence Life Council that meets monthly with Central Office
- Residence hall management [privately owned, management companies & institutionally funded]
- Access to campus resources, student leadership opportunities, academic environment, faculty engagement, and the countless cultural, social and educational resources New York City offers
- Ability to engage with peers in residence and create meaningful and life-long relationships
- Residence hall engagement contributes to an increase in retention and graduation rates among undergraduate students

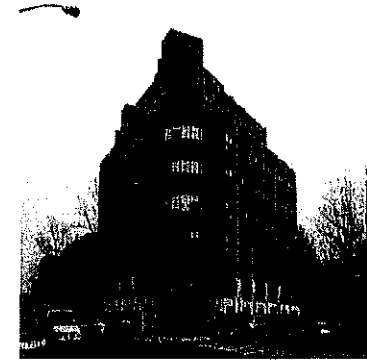

Baruch College

1760 3rd Avenue, Manhattan

- The state-of-the-art Residences are equipped with a concierge, high tech gym, laundry facility that texts you when your clothes are dry, and a very chill lounge to study or relax with your friends. The building is just blocks away from Central Park, the Whitney Museum, and Serendipity.
- 250 Beds and 6 Resident Assistants
- Costs – Double Room is $11,880 and $11,470 for academic year

Brooklyn College

Residence Hall @ Brooklyn College

- The Residence Hall offers student housing with apartment-style living in various settings, including studios, private bedrooms, or shared bedrooms. Students are provided with a full array of amenities, all of which are included in the cost of accommodations.
- 280 Beds and 6 Resident Assistants
- Costs – $9,250 - $16,050 [range is based on room layout and size] for academic year

The City College of New York

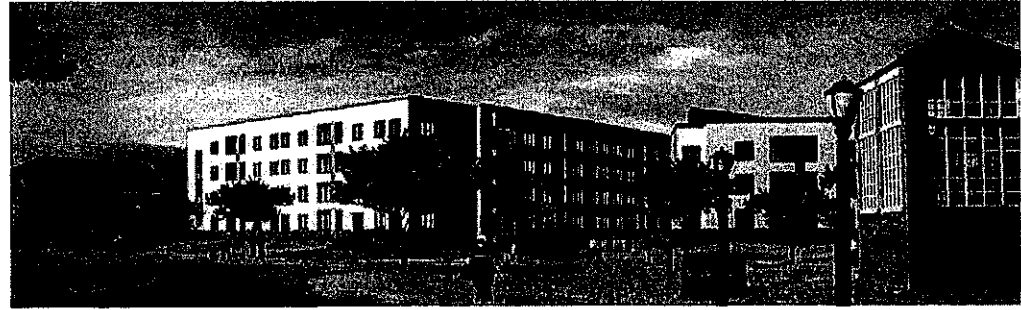

The Towers at CCNY

- 589 Beds and 11 Resident Assistants
- Currently, The Towers provides accommodations for 589 student residents. The Towers consists of 164 fully-furnished, air-conditioned suites. The Towers also has a limited number of studio and one-bedroom suites available for faculty housing.
- Ranges from $12,900 a year (academic agreement) or $13,950 a year (annual agreement) to $16,910 a year (annual agreement) or $15,670 a year (academic agreement), depending on occupancy of the room
- All suites have a kitchenette that includes a cooktop stove, a microwave, a full-size refrigerator, a sink, cabinets, and countertop space.
- The Towers offers free wireless internet service throughout the entire building (including resident rooms and lounges), a multi-purpose seminar room, a fitness center, a convenience store (T-Store), a central laundry facility, a community kitchen and lounge area with a billiards table and large TV with comfortable seating. All residents are issued an access card for entry at the 24-Hour Security Desk.

College of Staten Island

CSI Student Housing

- The College of Staten Island's student housing is easily accessible from the Campus Center, Sports and Recreation Center, and academic buildings. The student apartments are offered in a variety of floor plans; they are fully furnished and include cable and Internet. In addition, our student housing includes a state-of-the-art fitness center, study lounges, social lounge, and much more.
- 450 Beds and 8 Resident Assistants
- Costs - $5,310 - $7,628 [range is based on room layout and size] for each semester

Graduate Center

165 East 118th Street, NY, NY

- Graduate Center Apartments
- Small residential community (under 30 residents) comprised of graduate students, postdoctoral fellows and members of the faculty
- Director of Security & Public Safety is the contact person for residential community

Hunter College

Brookdale Campus Housing & The 92nd Street Residence

- 623 Beds and 13 Resident Assistants and 12 Assistant Resident Assistants
- Students who live in the Brookdale Campus Residence have the unique opportunity to enrich their learning experiences by becoming involved in the Residence Life community. Residents are involved in a number of social, educational, and cultural programs designed to enhance their learning and to promote positive relationships within the Residences and the community at large.
- Only a limited number of Hunter's 23,000 students have the opportunity to live in the Hunter Residences. The application process is highly competitive; therefore, we recommend that students complete a housing application as early as possible.
- The 92nd Street Residence is located in one of Manhattan's best neighborhoods and is just three blocks from Central Park, Museum Mile and a variety of restaurants, including the 92nd Street Café, which provides discounts to residents. With public transportation just steps away, students will find all of New York City at their doorstep 92nd street residence.
- The state-of-the-art 97th Street Residences are equipped with everything you would expect plus a concierge, high tech gym, laundry facility that texts you when your clothes are dry, and a lounge to study or relax with your friends. You can also take a break from studying and challenge a friend to a game of pool or foosball. The building is just blocks away from NYC landmarks- Central Park, the Guggenheim Museum, and Metropolitan Museum of Art just to name a few!

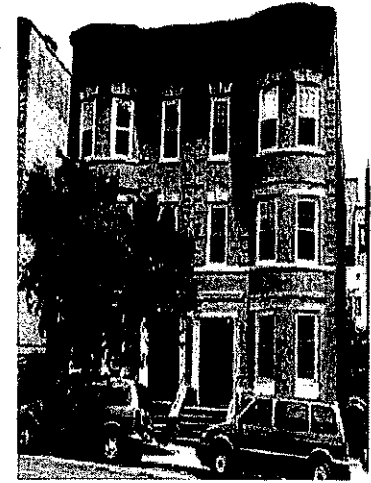

John Jay College

Hotel New Yorker

- Conveniently located by Penn Station with direct access to various subway lines, shops and restaurants
- Currently has 94 students housed on the 18th floor with occupancy for 100 residential students
- Residential consists primarily of freshmen, transfers and about 20 graduate students
- 15th floor provides a 24 hour community lounge space, study room and conference room. In addition, residents have access to a kitchen has designated hours of operation
- The hotel is divided by towers. The residents live in one tower and the hotel guests live in another. Towers are separate and you only have access to the tower where you reside
- On basement floor residents have access to a gym and laundry facility
- Work with Educational Housing Services (EHS)
- 2 Resident Advisors and 1 Resident Director
- No alcohol policy
- $6,800 per semester and student for a quad apartment and $9,977 per semester and student for a single

Lehman College

Student Housing

- Depending on which room you choose will depend on your monthly rate. The rates are as follows:
- Double Occupancy - $757 (per resident, per month), which translates to $8890.00 annually
- Single Occupancy- $839 (per month), which translates to $9857.00 annually
- Large Single Occupancy- $894 (per month), which translates to $10505.95 annually
- 21 Beds and 2 Resident Assistants
- $8,890 - $10,505.95 [range is based on room layout] for academic year

Queens College

The Summit at Queens College

- Student support services are offered to help you excel in the classroom and on campus.
- Organized social events provide opportunities to make friends and become involved in campus activities.
- Individual License Agreements mean you don't have to worry about your roommate not paying rent—you only have to worry about yourself.
- You can sleep later. You will live only steps away from your classes.
- 506 Beds and 11 Resident Assistants
- $5,250 - $6,900 [range is based on room layout] for each semester

Core Components for a Residence Life Program

- Staff Training & Development
- Diversity, Inclusion & Equity
- Health, Safety and Risk Management
- Environment & Facility Management
- Programming and Engagement
- Assessment and Evaluation