Your Classroom. Our City.

Located around the bustling streets of lower Manhattan, BMCC is one of the most accessible colleges in New York. Our students actively participate in the artistic communities of Tribeca and SoHo, the dynamic financial district, and the center of local government at City Hall. Plus, we now have a satellite campus in Washington Heights. Our students thrive on the diversity of the surrounding communities and cultures, as they build their network and broaden their horizons.

Your Culture. Our Community.

Our strength lies in our diversity, with professors, staff and students hailing from over 105 countries and speaking over 100 languages. We are also a Minority and Hispanic-Serving Institution. Our state-of-the-art facilities include advanced computer laboratories, a media center, a performing arts center, and sports facilities, including a newly-renovated, competition-size swimming pool.

Enriching Education. Flexible Options.

If you are pursuing a certificate program, seeking professional development courses, or embarking on an associate degree program, with over 50 academic programs, you can choose the path that best suits your interests and ambitions. When it comes to academics, we take no shortcuts. Our faculty members are experts in their fields, and they are passionate about teaching and inspiring the next generation of leaders.

We understand that life can be busy, which is why we offer flexibility in our class schedules. If you prefer full-time, part-time, day, evening, or weekend classes, or even the option to study online or in person, we have options to fit your lifestyle and ensure that you can balance your education with your other commitments.

Your Future. Our Legacy.

We believe in the power of hands-on experience and the transformative nature of apprenticeships and internships. We level the playing field for students who may not have role models or connections in their desired fields. By providing these opportunities, we ensure that our students can shine, regardless of their background. BMCC puts you in contact with professionals and alumni who have already carved out successful paths, inspiring you to do the same. The internships connect you with industries and fields that match your interests, propelling you towards the career you desire.

Not only that, we have developed strong transfer partnerships with some of the most renowned four-year institutions in the country. Here, you can get credits that can be applied to your bachelor's degree, making BMCC the perfect starting point for your future success.

BMCC alumni are a community of learners, leaders, and achievers, who are leaving their footprint in the world. The foundation students gain from BMCC has transformed lives, sustained families and made dreams possible.
