SPN 121

Elementary Intensive Spanish 1 & 2
[2 semesters in one]
6 credits 6 hours

This intensive course combines Spanish 105 and 106 into a one-semester course. It is designed for students who have had no previous background in Spanish. Students develop their skills in listening, comprehension, speaking and writing in Spanish, supplemented by readings and analysis of simple Spanish texts. In addition to building vocabulary on everyday life, students develop the ability to make questions and to describe themselves and others, their environment, preferences and lifestyles in Spanish. In the second half of the semester, students are introduced to past tenses, and develop their ability to narrate events and describe people and situations in the past. The course also exposes students to different forms of Spanish and Spanish cultures through music and short film clips. Since the goal is to enhance students’ speaking and writing abilities in Spanish,

Spanish will be the main language spoken in class.
FRN 204
French Film and Conversation
3 credits 3 hours

This course involves intensive oral work consisting of discussions of French/Francophone films. Communicative activities and drills in pronunciation, intonation and rhythm are included as well as several oral presentations throughout the course. A wide variety of topics ranging from everyday life problems to major social and cultural issues will be discussed. Readings, written work, and discussions will be in French.

Prerequisite: FRN 200 or Departmental Approval

FRN 200
French III
3 credits 3 hours

This course includes a review of grammar plus the study of French civilization and selected readings in French literature.

FRN 210
French IV
3 credits 3 hours

While reviewing advanced grammar, students are trained in literary analysis through the works of modern French authors.

FRN 121
Elementary Intensive French 1 & 2
[2 semesters in one]
6 credits 6 hours 2 hours lab

This intensive course combines French 105 and 106 into a one-semester course. It is designed for students who have had no previous background in French. Students develop their skills in listening, comprehension, speaking and writing in French, supplemented by readings and analysis of simple French texts. In addition to building vocabulary on everyday life, students develop the ability to make questions and to describe themselves and others, their environment, preferences and lifestyles in French. In the second half of the semester, students are introduced to past tenses, and develop their ability to narrate events and describing people and situations in the past. The course also exposes students to different forms of French and Francophone cultures through music and short film clips. Since the goal is to enhance students’ speaking and writing abilities in French, French will be the main language spoken in class.

ITL 200
French III
3 credits 3 hours

This course includes a review of grammar plus the study of French civilization and selected readings in French literature.

ITL 210
Italian IV
3 credits 3 hours

This intensive writing course emphasizes comprehension, writing, and analysis of Italian contemporary and classical texts.