Teacher Education Department Student Professionalism Policy Statement:

This semester, you will receive and be asked to sign the Teacher Education Department professional policy statement. The policy is summarized here. The Teacher Education Department of Borough of Manhattan Community College requires that all students conduct themselves in a professional manner during class, site visits, internships, course related activities and interactions with members of the Teacher Education Department. The Teacher Education Department defines professional behavior in alignment with the New York State Education Department Code of Ethics (www.highered.nysed.gov/tcert/resteachers/codeofethics.htm#statement). By reading and signing a copy of the Teacher Education Student Professionalism Policy you will agree to abide by these policies and understand the ramifications of failure to abide by these policies. If you have any questions concerning this policy please contact me or a faculty member of the Teacher Education Department.

College Attendance Policy:

Effective Fall 2009, The maximum number of absence hours is limited to one more class hour than the contact hours as indicated in the BMCC college catalog. For example, you may be enrolled in a four hour class that meets four times a week. You are allowed five hours of absence, not five days. In the case of excessive absence, the instructor has the option to lower the grade or assign an “F” or “WU” grade.

Academic Adjustments for Students with Disabilities:

Students with disabilities who require reasonable accommodations or academic adjustments for this course must contact the Office of Services for Students with Disabilities. BMCC is committed to providing equal access to all programs and curricula to all students.

BMCC Policy on Plagiarism and Academic Integrity Statement:

Plagiarism is the presentation of someone else’s ideas, words or artistic, scientific, or technical work as one’s own creation. Using the idea or work of another is permissible only when the original author is identified. Paraphrasing and summarizing, as well as direct quotations, require citations to the original source. Plagiarism may be intentional or unintentional. Lack of dishonest intent does not necessarily absolve a student of responsibility for plagiarism.

Students who are unsure how and when to provide documentation are advised to consult with their instructors. The library has guides designed to help students to appropriately identify a cited work. The full policy can be found on BMCC's web site, www.bmcc.cuny.edu. For further information on integrity and behavior, please consult the college bulletin (also available online).
